I, TOO, SING AMERICA

I, too, sing America.

I am the darker brother.
They send me to eat in the kitchen
When company comes,
But I laugh,
And eat well,
And grow strong.

Tomorrow,
I'll sit at the table
When company comes.
Nobody'll dare
Say to me,
"Eat in the kitchen,"
Then.

Besides,
They'll see how beautiful I am
And be ashamed—

I, too, am America.

"I, too, sing, America" is a fitting theme for the 1972 Trojan, because it shows the humiliations Black people have endured in the past, Black youth today will not settle for a place "in the kitchen".

They have "eaten well and grown strong" and beautiful at the table of knowledge. Future generations of black children will not grow up with feelings of inadequacy. They will grow up saying...

SING

Fair Scores Hit

A Club Fair was organized early this year by the activities office, involving all the clubs in school. The purpose was to allow the student body to become familiar with Club programs.

The patio was used as the center of activity for each club, at which students were able to communicate with the club members and sponsors about the various clubs.

Opportunities were available for students to join and become active in clubs of their choice.

Each club tried to convince every member of the Douglass family that they would never know about a club until they joined it.

BOTTOM LEFT: Johnny Greer and Bobby McCarty, portraying clowns, try to persuade Nedra Reed to join the Drama Club, but it seems she doesn't want to.

ABOVE: At the Para-Medical Club booth Charles Stevenson and Terrell Osborne try to arouse the students' interest in the medical field.

ABOVE: Co-captain Raymond Hayes crowns Miss Dorothy Barnett as Miss Trojan. Miss Trojan was nominated and voted upon by the Trojan Football team. The young men used secret ballots to vote on her and they kept it a secret to the last minute. CENTER: Miss Vickie Hornbeck promenades down the aisles minutes after she was crowned Miss Douglass. Vickie is a member of the VICA club who helped her in pursuing the great honor in which she holds.

Homecoming Highlights Fall Semester

LEFT: Miss Homecoming Shirley Jordan rides in the royal car greeting loyal Trojans. Her escort was the charming Mr. Maurice Benefee who also drove the royal limousine in the beautiful Homecoming exercise.

A Beautiful Season Begins With an Early Winter Snow

Ugh! A snowball right in the face. This was the way some of the students got their taste of the first snow of the winter, which lasted only two days. When the snow first started to fall, many of the students worried about getting home, but by the end of the day they decided to take in stride and have themselves a ball. Since snow is rare around the first of December, it was really a surprise when the first flakes of snow fell, but in the long run the whole Douglass family enjoyed their first bite of winter for the year, except maybe the custodian who had to mop up the "lake" of snowball remains in the hall.

TOP: Daisy Gilbreath tries desperately to escape Melvin Brown's snowball, but too late, he's dead on target.

Xmas Spirit Sweeps Over Trojan Land

The Christmas spirit was very high in Trojan Land this Christmas season.

Ben Hall III, the Black Santa, spread joy and Christmas spirit by passing out cards and gifts placed in Santa's box. This project was sponsored by the Trojan World staff.

"The Messiah", was presented by the Vocal and Instrumental Music Department. To insure the success of the program, the Concert Choir, the Mixed Chorus, and Concert Orchestra practiced strenuously under the direction of Mr. L. Hicks and Mr. W. Perry.

CENTER RIGHT: Mrs. Burns becomes ecstatic when she realizes Santa has come to bring her a card.

Trojans Celebrate Black Heritage Week

Black Heritage Week is a week when the students at DHS go way out to recall events that has changed the outlook for the Black man in America. People like Nat Turner, Harriet Tubman, Jomo Kenyatta, Angela Davis, Ericka Huggins and many others are remembered who have contributed to progress of the Black man in America.

During this week, Afro dress day was held for two days and the week ended with the annual Black Heritage assembly. The assembly covered events beginning in the 16th century all the way up to the present day.

Music, art, literature and drama of the Black culture was stressed throughout the week.

Gospel Choir Exposes New Sound

A new gospel singing group has brightened Douglass this year. Organized by Temple McKinney and Barbara Potts, the choir sings religious favorites. The Gospel Choir has performed at many churches and in several exchange assemblies.

A standing ovation greeted the choir at Central State University's Black Heritage Week Program.

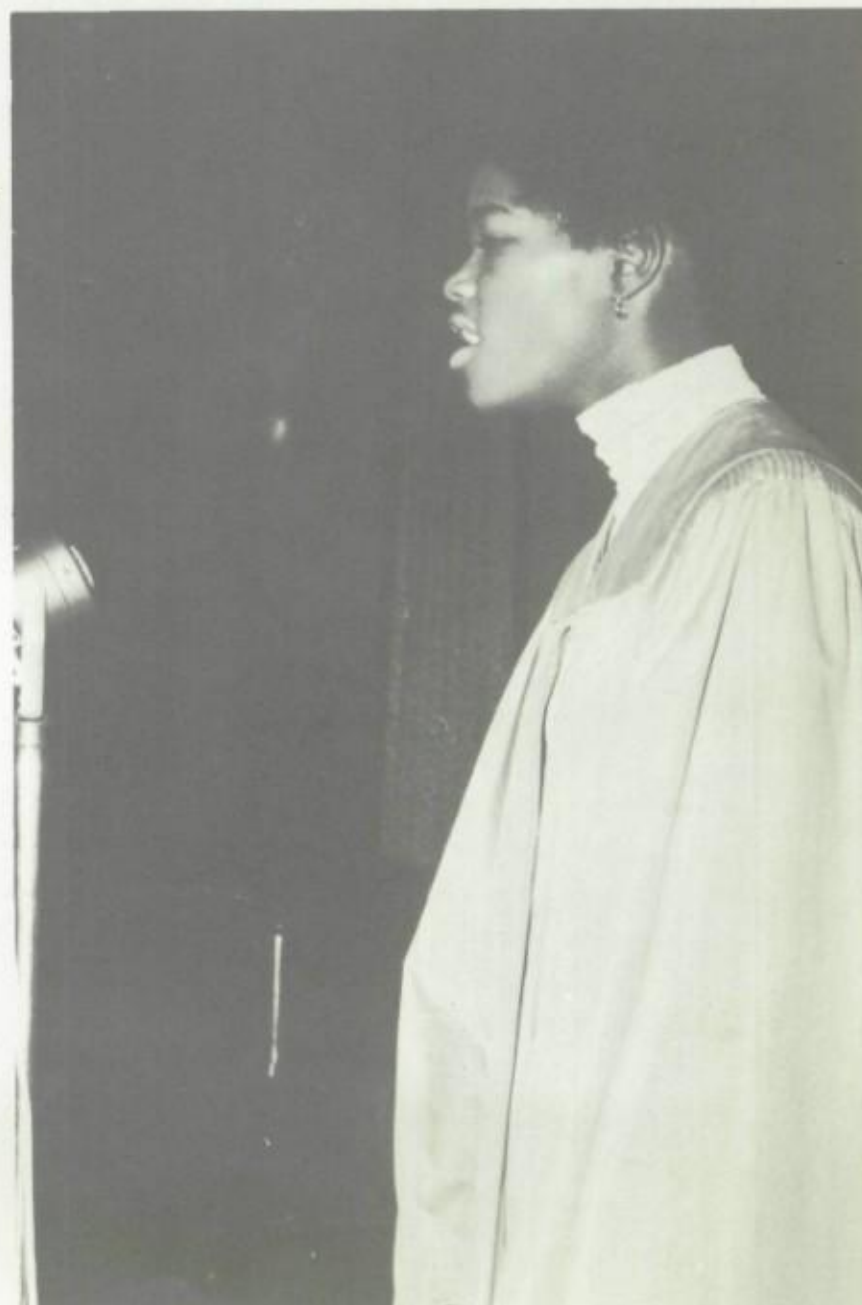

The Choir also performed several numbers at Douglass' Black Heritage Week Assembly including "Children Get Together" and "There a Bright Side Somewhere."

Seniors Look to Graduation Day

"Without knowledge, our struggle diminishes," is the motto of the graduating Seniors of 1972. The Seniors adopted the carnation as their class flower, and tinted green trimmed in black as their class colors.

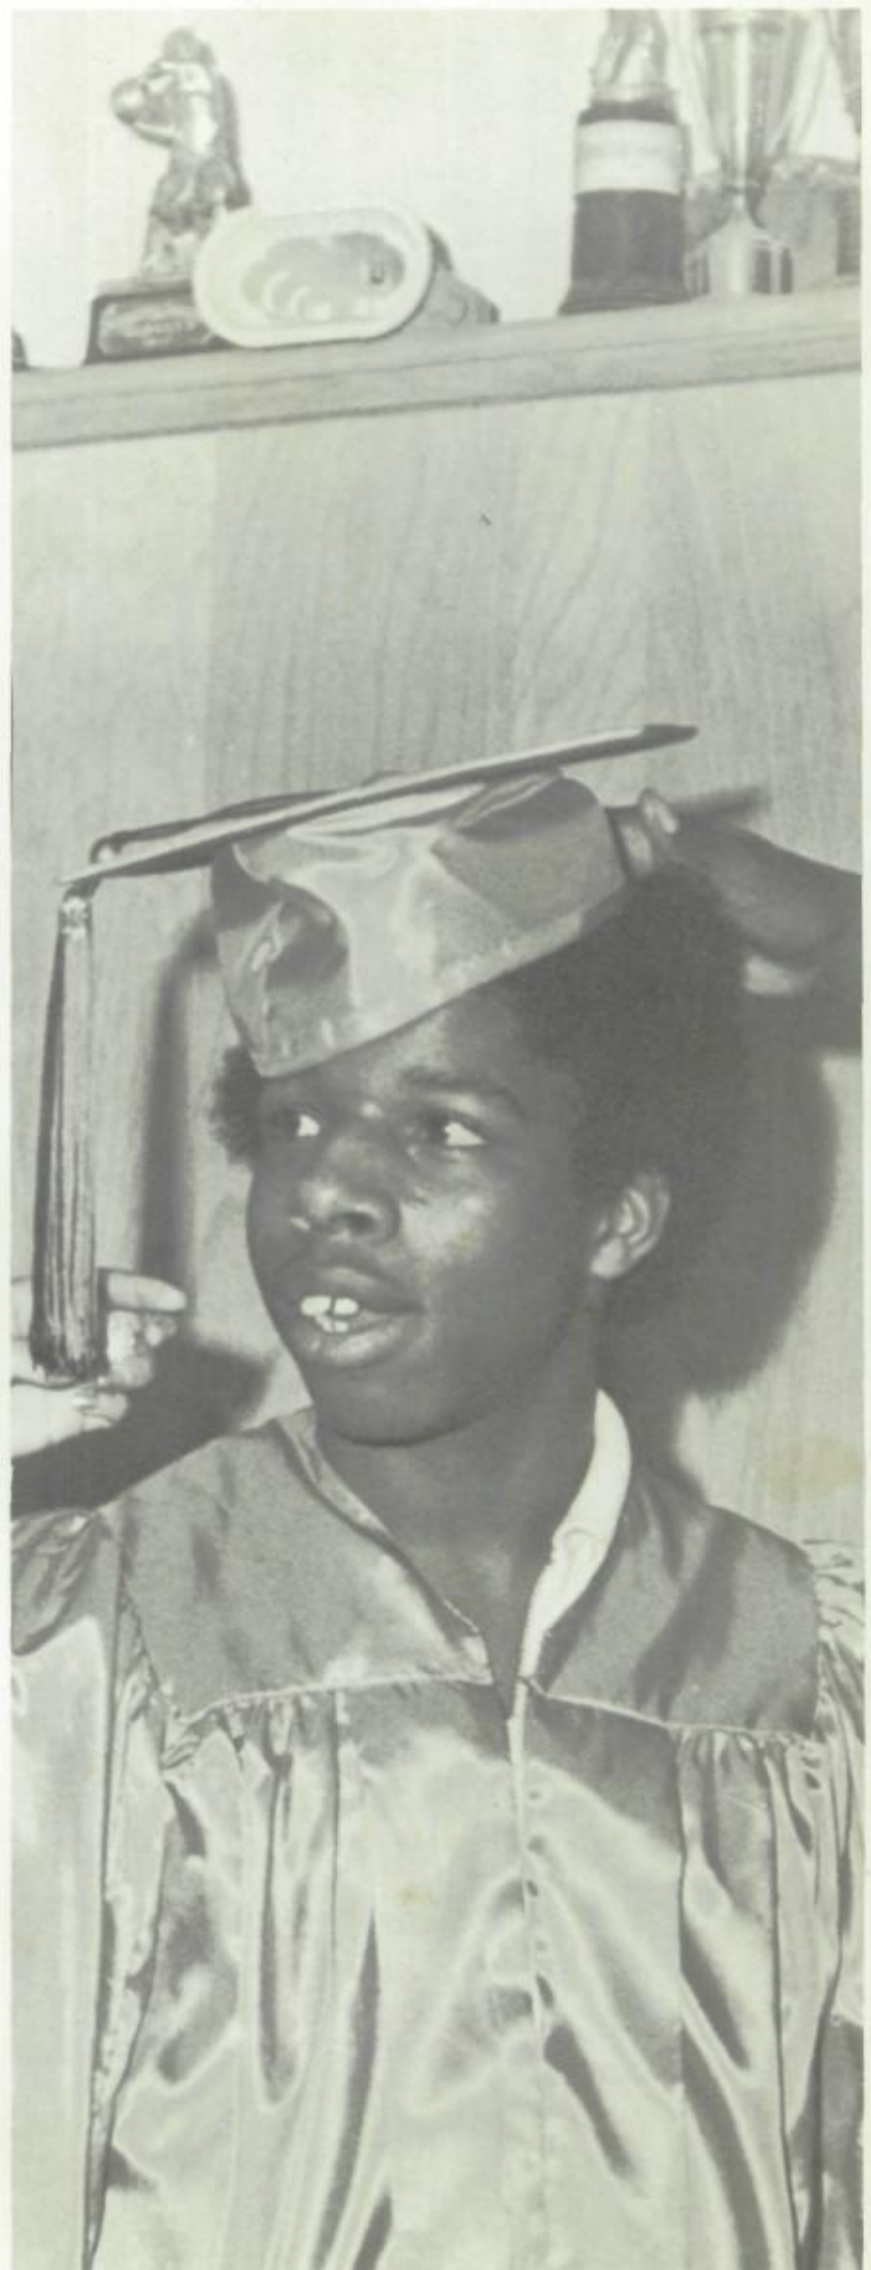

With their motto in mind, the Seniors of '72 have strived for academic achievement and constructive leadership. The privilege of being a graduate is therefore a fitting conclusion to the high school education of the Senior who struggles for these values of life.

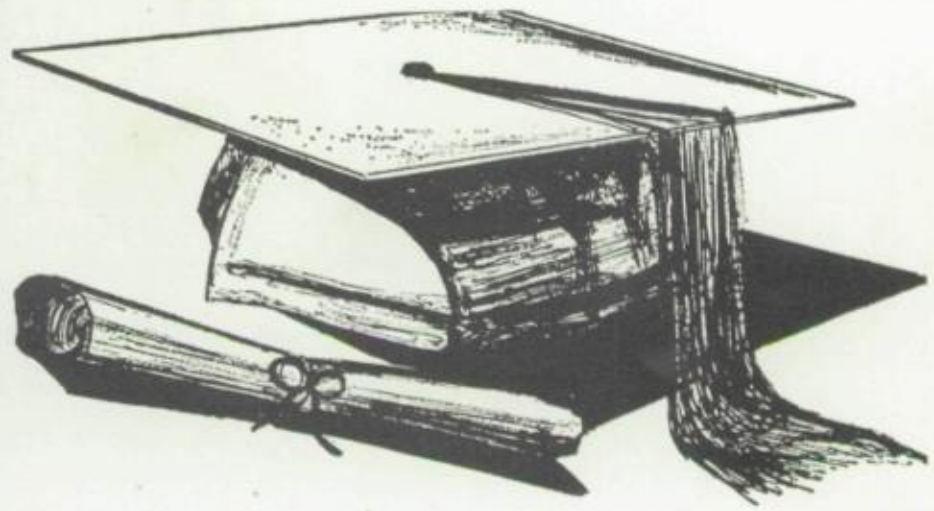

Graduation is an event that every Senior looks forward to. From the first day of their Senior year until commencement day, the excitement of being a Senior never dies.

Senior Daniel Looney gives a sigh of relief as Counselor D.M. Parker checks credits, and finds he is not lacking. (ABOVE)

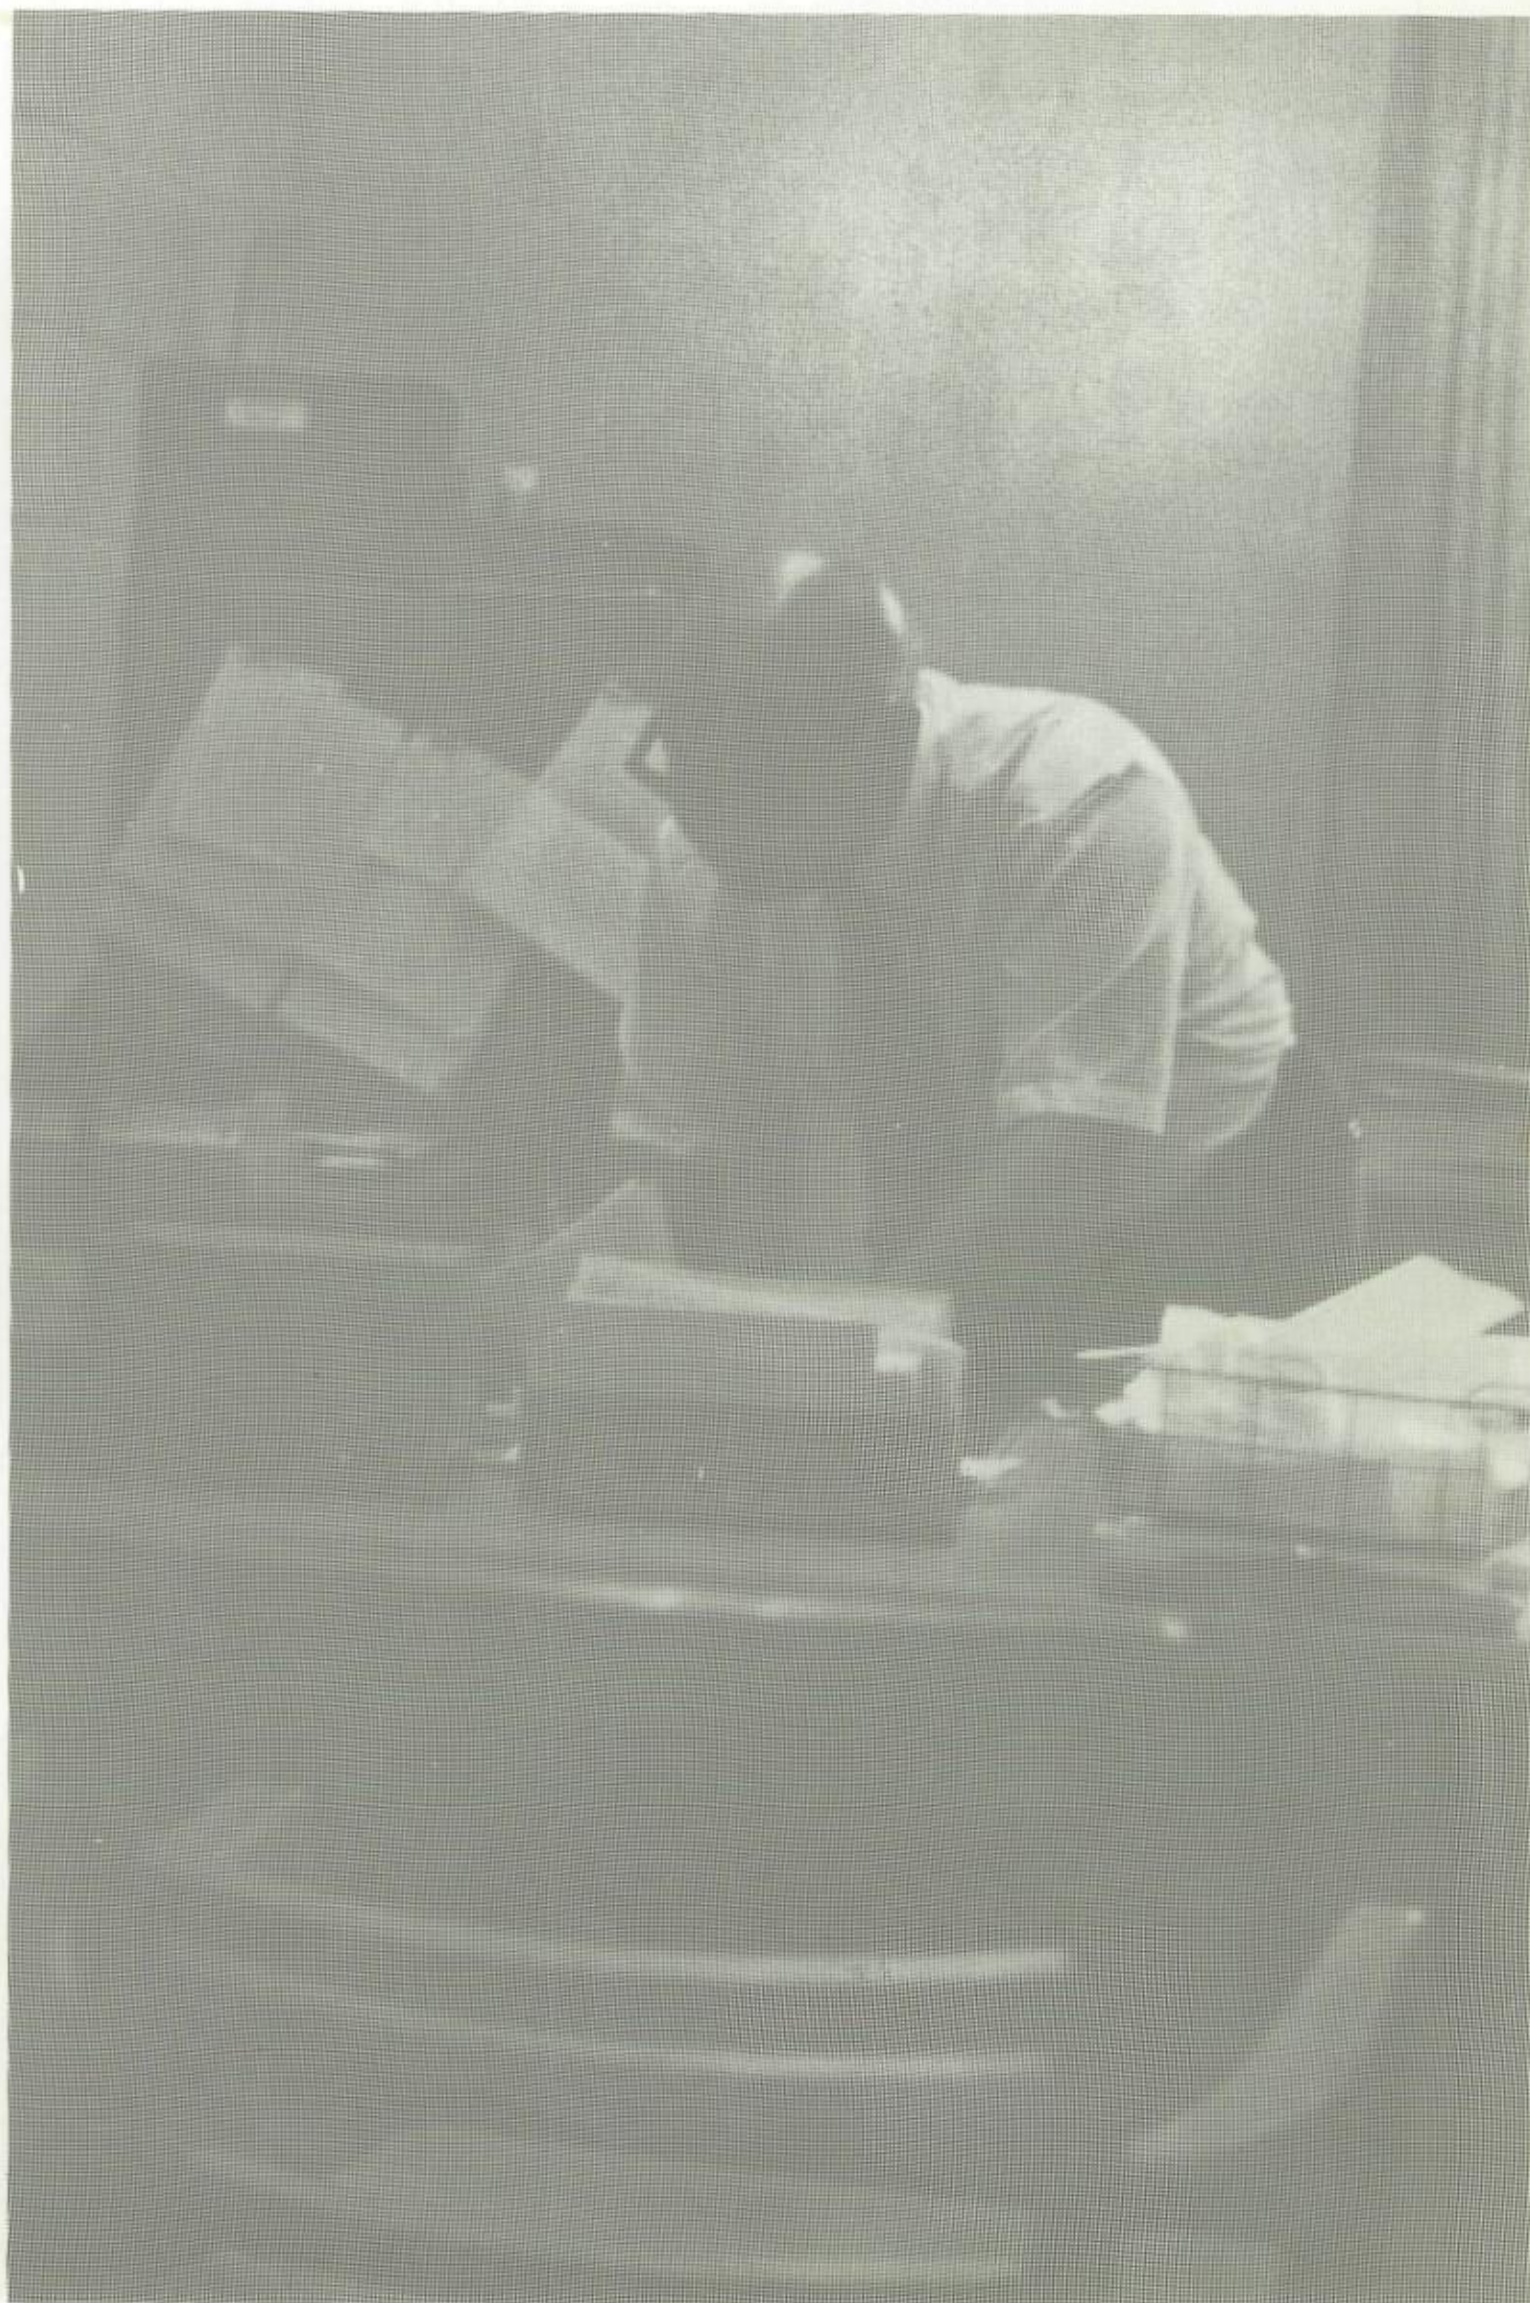

"I like the orange and black tassels," says Calvin Moore. Choosing the color of graduation robes is always a hassle.

James Alexander, Senior Class president, and Mrs. Peters, Senior sponsor, look over suggestions for class motto, colors, and flower in the Senior Suggestion Box.

Principal Heads Administrative Staff

The administrative staff of Douglass High School is headed by Principal J.A. Diggs. This is the second term which Mr. Diggs has served. He and other members of the administrative staff have adopted as their theme "For We Have Promises to Keep." It was explained that this meant that the staff was dedicated in various ways to the student body.

"To attain the heights they are reaching and making it a reality we must strive for perfections." Mr. Diggs said always set your goals high.

Mr. Diggs works diligently considering a proposal presented to him by the student government organization.

New Innovation is Interest of Faculty

New innovations are necessary in order to keep up with the demands of modern education. Much work goes on behind closed doors because of the tireless efforts of the staff responsible for a good program. Mr. W.F. Jeltz, vice principal, is in charge of academics and assistant to the principal. Mr. A.B. Holmes is vice principal in charge of discipline.

The professional counseling staff, Mrs. D. Parker, Mr. S.M. Harris, and Mrs. L. Lane have co-ordinated their efforts to better aid students.

Mrs. F.M. Cudjoe, director of activities, has been most creative in coordinating the activities of school clubs and organizations to the extent that things are going very smoothly this year.

Mrs. Barbara Sabb has been most effective in helping students with the Vocational Rehabilitation Program.

Mr. W. F. Jeltz, assistant principal, looks as though all that hard work is giving him a headache. But Mr. Jeltz says he's accustomed to it now, after his many years of service to Douglass.

Mr. Holmes' idea of relaxing while conversing on the phone is twiddling his fingers, legs crossed. By the look on his face it seems he's getting the best of the person on the other end.

"Today is beginning of the rest of your Life," reads Mrs. Cudjoe, who is the Activities Director for the Trojan Family.

Mrs. Barbara Sabb says "I greet everyone with a cheery smile." But maybe this is just a pose for the cameraman.

Mr. S. M. Harris, junior counselor, looks as though he's just about ready to knock off for the day. Mr. Harris is invited each day by hundreds of juniors who need his advice and help.

The newest counselor at Douglass, Mrs. Lane, spends a lot of time advising students on their everyday problems, both social and personal.

Representative from the Navy, Thomas Carmen, tries to persuade Mrs. D. Parker, senior counselor to sign up. Mrs. Parker sticks with a firm "No."

Staff Members Help Keep School Active

Behind the scene at every school are the people who keep the wheels turning: the staff.

The secretarial staff is not only made up to suit the administration and faculty, but they also aid the student body. With endless paper work, plus the endless duties keeping an office going, the secretarial staff is made up of tireless workers.

The cafeteria staff provides a nourishing and balanced lunch for the students and staff who wish to eat at school. Open early in the morning until afternoon in order to provide breakfast, these people are an asset to the school.

The custodians help keep the school a pleasant and clean place to work and study.

Mrs. Eva Williams, new financial secretary, writes a receipt for a waiting teacher. Mrs. Williams keeps the money and records straight of the clubs and organizations. Typing up the daily announcements is Mrs. Mary Woods. The announcements keep the student body up to date with all the events at school. Mrs. Sylvia Bolton, school registrar, pulls the school transcript of a former Douglass student to send to his college. Mrs. Barbara Sabb, vocational rehabilitation secretary, dictates a letter to her secretary, Miss Clayette Tucker. One of the most vital parts of the school is its cafeteria. Here one of the cooks prepares a nourishing meals for the staff and students.

Mrs. Beverly Cox,
Head Librarian

Mrs. Lorene Battle

Mrs. Thelma Cochran

The Media Center furnishes many valuable materials for education enrichment. Miss Beverly Cox, a former teacher at Hoover Jr. High, is now the new head librarian. Miss Cox says she enjoys her work and hopes to stay next year.

Mrs. Thelma Cochran is in charge of textbooks. Non-book materials are handled by Mrs. Lillie Hope, and Mrs. Lorene Battle is in charge of supplies.

New Librarian Heads Media Center this Year

Hard reading, independent study, and day dreaming is what's taking place at this table, and these girls figure the best place for this is the Media Center.

Patricia Hughes tries her best to help Sterling Hill with his school work "but he just won't listen when I tell him his answer is wrong," she says.

"You have to be very quiet in the library" says Mrs. Lillie Hope, librarian. According to Mrs. Hope, she says this no less than a thousand times a day.

Business Offers Opportunities for Students

Mrs. Brandy Woods

ABOVE: Yvette Howard dolls up in the mirror to make sure she looks nice for her job after Mrs. Jackson's CVE class.

LEFT: Senior Violet Johnson works hard to finish typing the letter before time is up. But she'll make it in time. She always does.

In Business Education students are taught knowledge and skills. They are motivated to acquire a life time in an open field which bring fourth many job opportunities.

Business students are trained to type, take shorthand, run computer machines, file, bookkeeping and clerical practice. All of these opportunities are open to students at Douglass.

Fine Arts, Home Ec. Beautify Douglass

The Pep Band is one of the more active branches of the Fine Arts Department. This group entertains at Pep Assemblies and Basketball Games.

One's artistic talent and creative ability is displayed in art in various ways. Here Elaine Wrice demonstrates how a candle holder is made.

Mr. Rod Epperson
Mr. Leroy J. Hicks
Mr. W.E. Perry
Mrs. Malinda Pyle

The Fine Arts department was the source of many beautiful projects that brightened Douglass. The art classes won much outstanding recognition at art shows, with many other schools throughout the state.

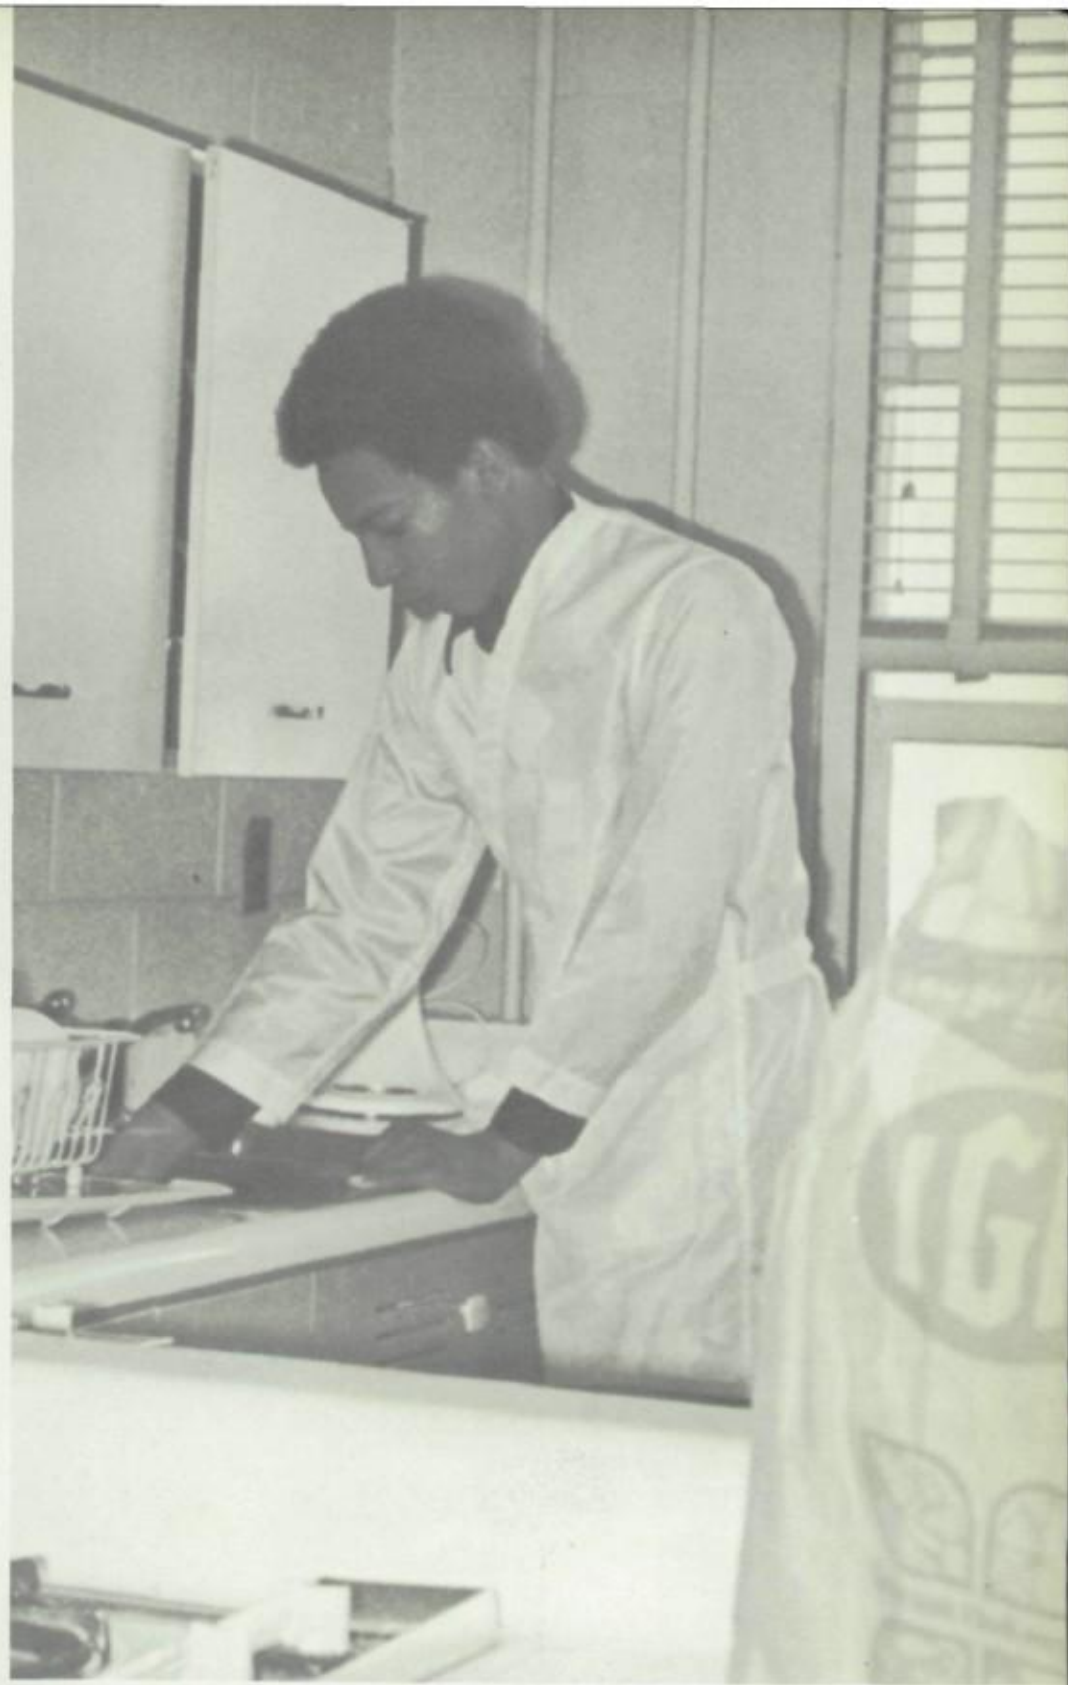

The crafts section of the department made various things that were so beautiful that some students offered to buy them. The stuffed pillow animals, and ashtrays filled the department's showcase the year round.

James Howeth displays a good image that Home Economics is not just for girls. A man has to survive also. He claims some of world's greatest chefs are men.

Junior Karen Mitchel is making sure the seam line is straight on the pantsuit she's making. Karen takes care in making the suit perfect so she can stay at the top of the class.

The Home Economics Department helped many students with various things this year such as cooking, sewing, home planning, and food management. This department was one that was enjoyed by many students this year. Because of the fund raising drive to determine the name of Miss VICA the classes started different drives such as selling food, raffles and other means of helping their candidates. The title was won by Miss Yolinda Burge, a senior.

Language Art Classes Adopt New Change

Curriculum changes were made this year for the Language Arts Department. Instead of English 10, 11, and 12 a student may choose from variety of one semester subjects, such as Black Literature, Mass Media, Vocabulary, Basic and Creative Writing, Reading and others.

This program was modified after one started at Northeast High School in 1970. This new program has met with the approval of most students and teachers. Enthusiam and interest have been aroused because students are able to choose their subject area.

Pamela Briggs and Lena Whited talk over their lesson. Shirley Bradley says she can't "get it" unless she studies independently. All agree they would rather be somewhere else.

These students try to impress the substitute by showing him how much English they can learn, just by playing a little game of chess.

Higher Mathematic Courses Aided by Tutor

Aid Charlotte Dejean listens patiently as Mrs. Peters goes over her duties for the day. Charlotte says when that hour is over, she feels as if she's been to school 10 times that day.

Mrs. Lola Greer
Mrs. J.V. Peters

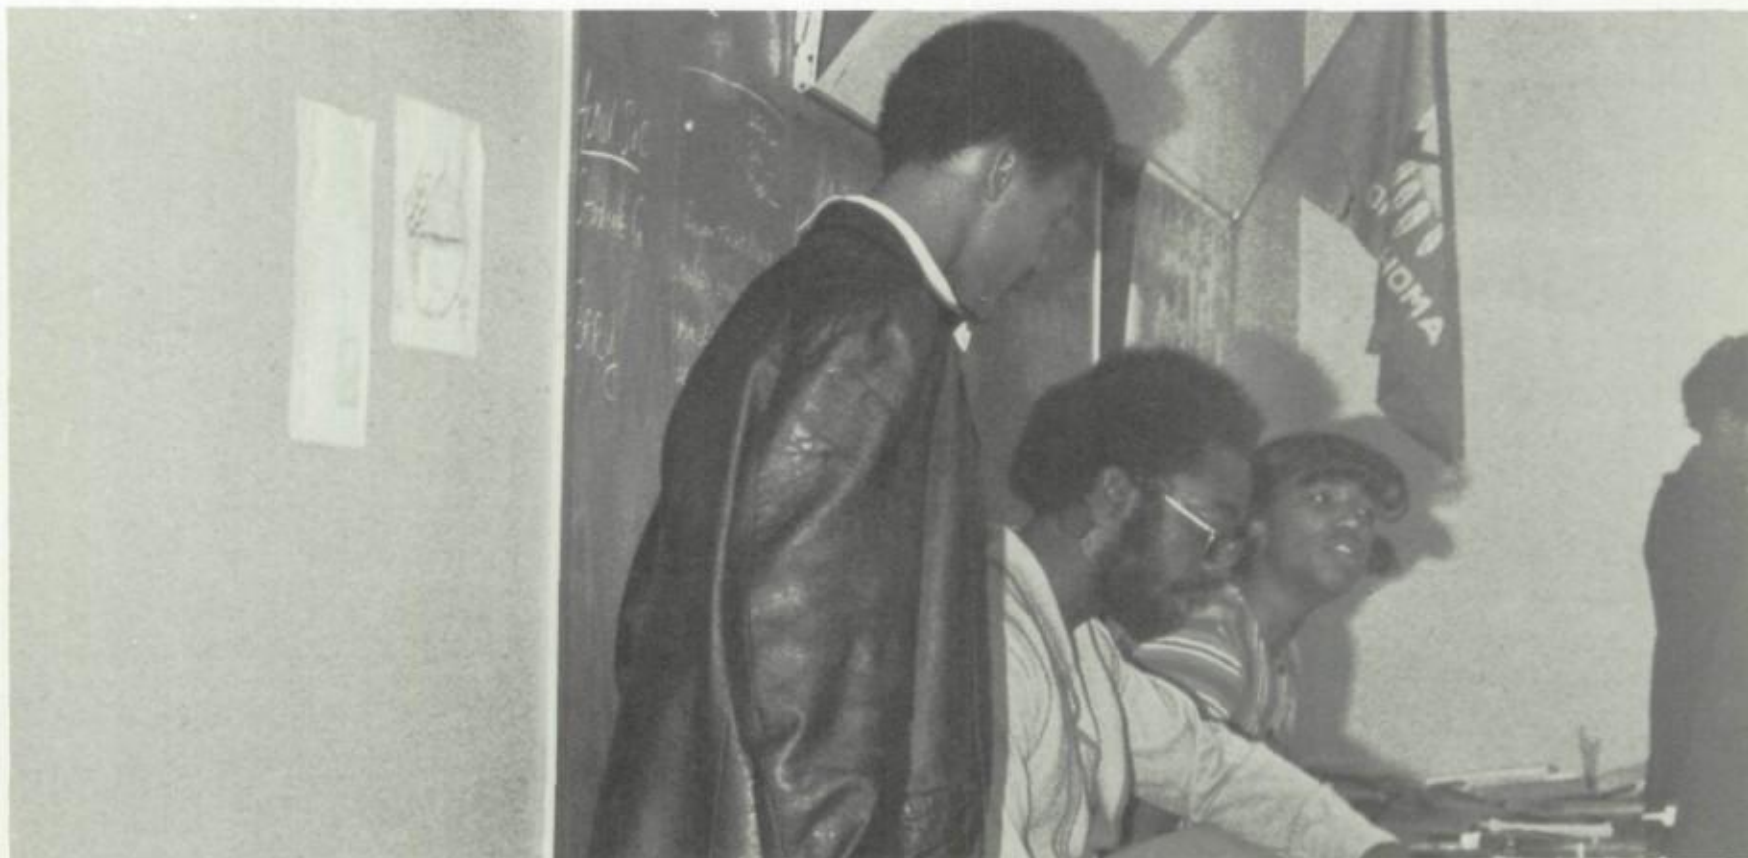

Mrs. Karen Richmond
Mr. Steve Ruedy

Mrs. Greer's math class is very attentive as they listen to a lecture that is one of their teacher's daily habits. The class agrees that the whole process is worthwhile.

Because of the cluster plan, higher math courses are offered at Southeast, U.S. Grant, Capital Hill. However, lower level courses, such as general math, Algebra I and Business Math are still offered here at the home base school. Basic understanding of the principals of mathematics and a preparation of higher math courses are stressed in Douglass' math department. Mr. Steve Ruedy serves this year as a special consultant for traveling student in mathematics.

History Builds Citizens to Become Leaders

Mr. Alonzo Shipp, Black History instructor, seems to be busy as Ronald Jones very strongly expresses his opinion about his test paper.

Black History, World and American History and Psychology-Sociology are the subjects offered in the Social Studies Department.

Along with textbook study, these classes emphasize work in newspapers and magazines. This encourages student to become fully aware of local nationwide and worldwide news.

Building critical thinking citizens to become world leaders is the goal of the social studies department.

Mr. Richard Burton
Mrs. A. P. Morgan

Mr. Alfa Mouton
Mr. Alonzo Ahipp

Mr. Richard Burton prepares his social studies lesson plan in the Learning Center. This purpose of the center is basically for tutoring those who have are having problems in certain areas of their studies.

Physical Education Strengthens Minds As Well As Bodies

Physical Education is a required course of one year leading toward graduation. A healthy body is worth as much as a strong mind.

Physical education is offered to both boys and girls, and both play an enormous part in the physical education program.

Physical education includes competitive sports such as basketball, baseball, tennis and swimming and wrestling. Letterman who prove their worth brought achievement in various sports.

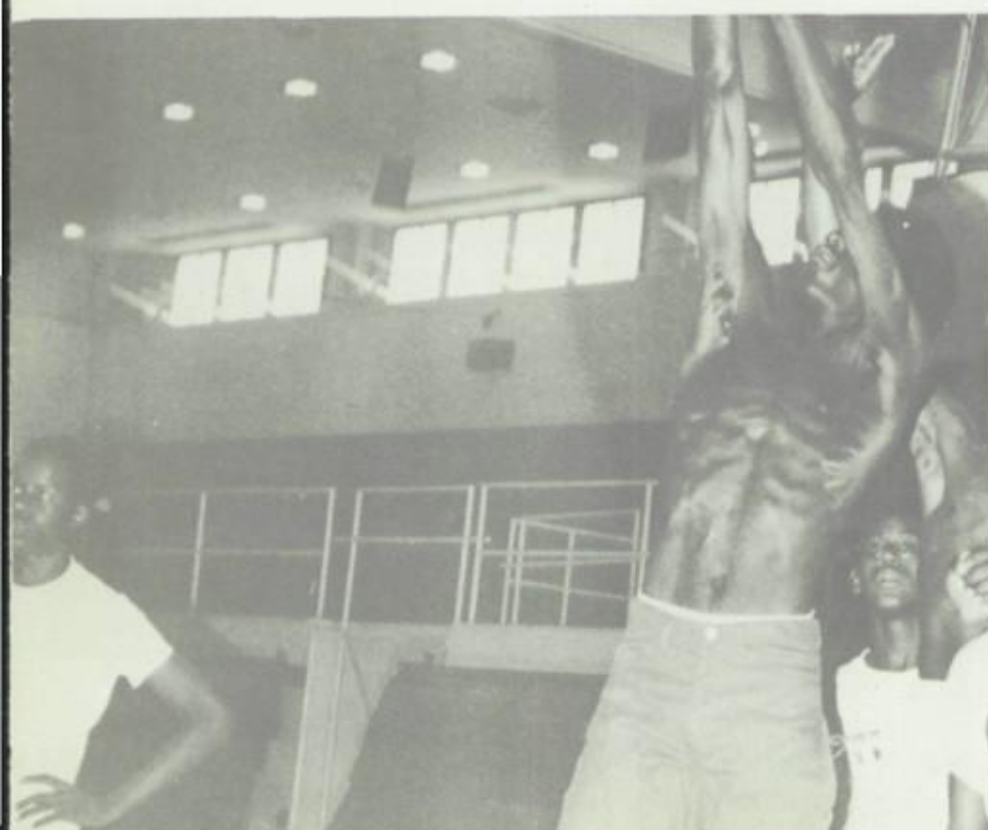

Individual classes also compete in sports, swim and exercise to develop good health.

Mrs. L. T. Alexander
Mr. Roscoe Cogburn

Mr. Lawrence Cudjoe
Mr. Robert Higgins

Richard Mumford seems to have admirers as he profiles with a beautiful jumpshot.

Using all his strength, this physical ed student jumps high and hard to make that shot count. Judging by the look on the other students face he made it.

Importance of Safety Stressed at Douglass

Mrs. Hattie James
Mrs. Eleanor Powell

Mr. Hilliard Sharp
Mr. Clem Williams,
security guard.

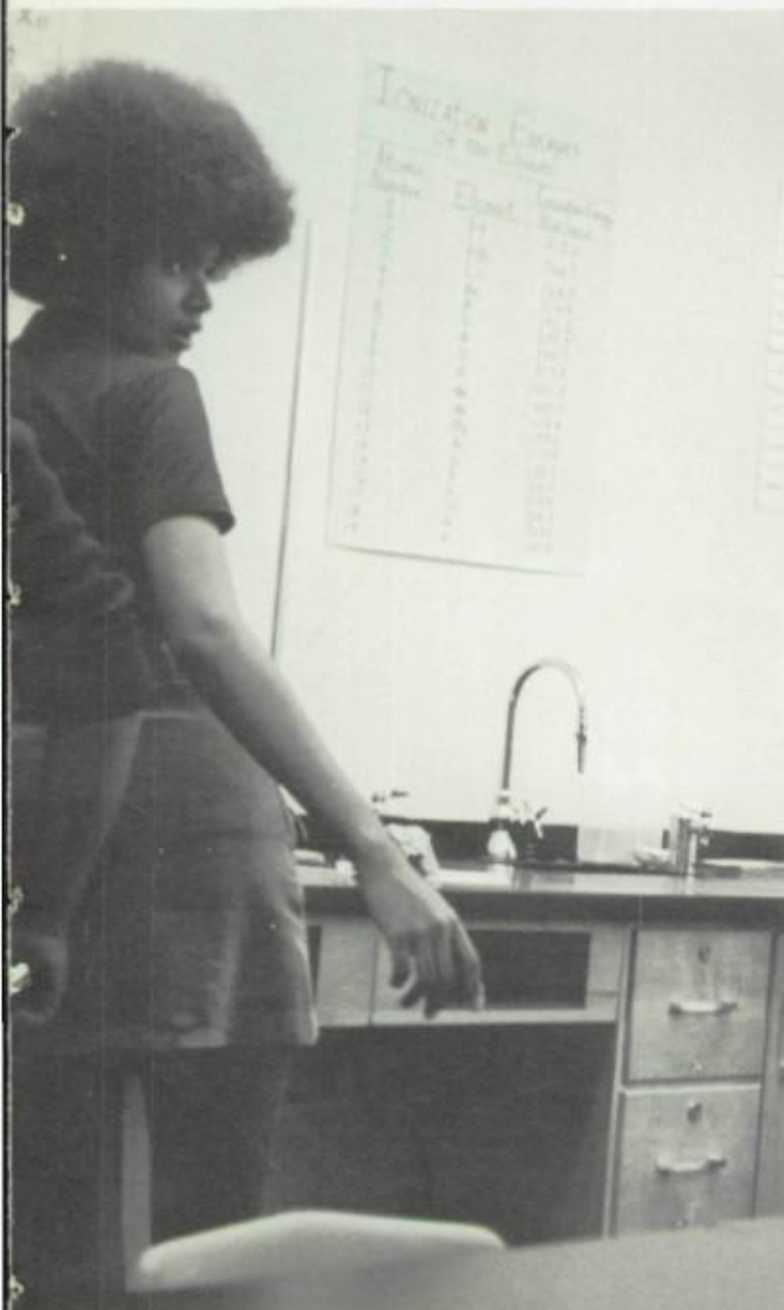

The Safety Department of Douglass works hand in hand with the Oklahoma Dept. of Public Safety. This department deals with the safety in school as well as at home. The safety department participates in many activities each year such as the Safety Convention, Safety Swing Thing, at the school fire drills, orderly disaster drills, safety poster contest, and many other activities. All of these are designed to help the student understand the importance of safety.

ABOVE: "You boys get out of the hall and go to class," yells Clem Williams, the new Security Guard. Mr. Williams has maybe the hardest job in the school, keeping the halls clear. Mr. Williams is assisted by Mr. Carl Williams, another security guard.

LEFT: "This is drive and this is reverse" says Mr. Sharp as he helps Marion Baccus, junior, with her shifting techniques. Mr. Sharp tries very hard to make the students understand the importance of safety.

The Science Department has grown rapidly with the adoption of the cluster plan. Transfer students from U.S. Grant, Southeast and Capitol Hill come to Douglass for advanced science classes. The students are supplied with all the necessary books and chemicals needed for experiments they perform for school as well as for independent study. Because Douglass is the science center they have acquired much new equipment, such as the computer, which works many different kinds of problems for the student.

LOWER LEFT: The juniors, Myrtle Jones and Phyllis Wilson, along with the traveling students, seemed very absorbed in the lecture Mr. Luetkemeyer is giving.

Special Education Department Is Stepping Up

The Special Education Department is one of the most important departments at Douglass. The teachers in special education aid students with learning handicaps to become successful in their endeavors. Counseling and individual help are especially important in this area. A student is encouraged to work at his own level of competence. This department also gives the students the extra help that is needed to prepare them in life.

Mr. William Loughridge, special education instructor, gets a few quiet moments to read one of his favorite books. Mr. Loughridge says these moments don't come often.

Vocational Tech. Center Renders Skills

Upper Left: Students of Douglass board Vo-Tech bus for another day of hard work and learning skills, in the courses taught at the technical center.

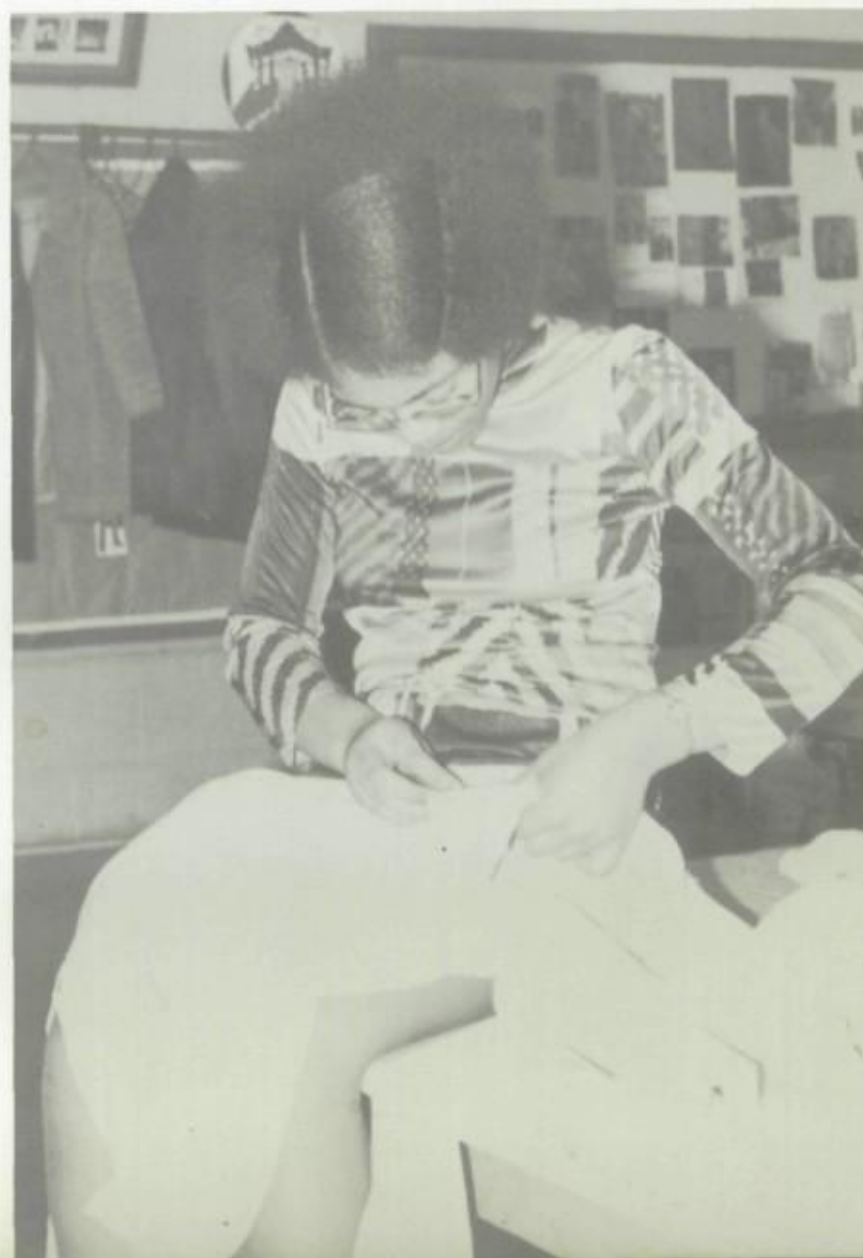

Upper Right: "Oops!" says Theresa. "Messed up again." But that's all right. All she has to do is start over again.

Left: Senior Jannette Jackson tries hard to explain to Mr. Fred Factory, assistant director of the Tech. School, why she's been late for class so much this semester.

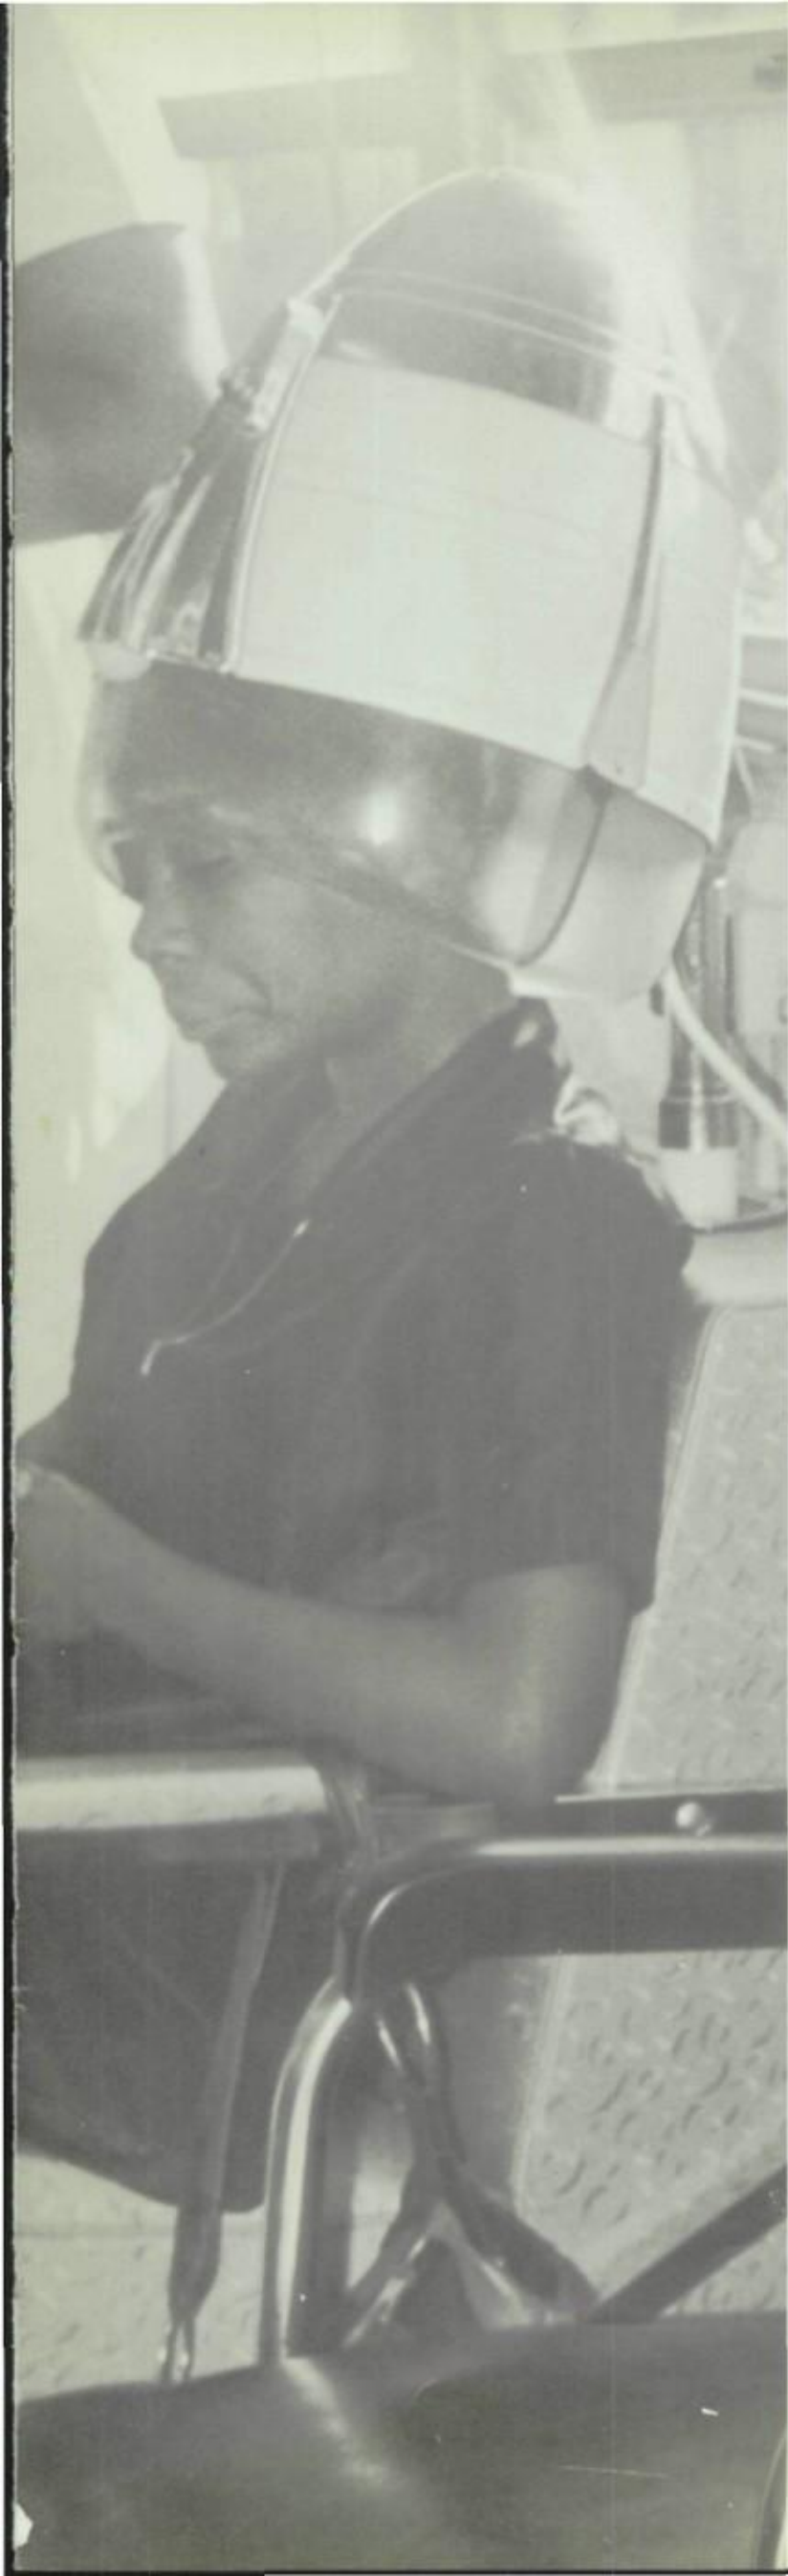

The Vocational Center on Bryant helps traveling students in skills such as computer programming, printing, electronics, metal work, and many others. Courses are offered at the Technical Center to help young people interested in learning trades.

The Vocational Center is especially geared for the student who is not college bound, and who wants to enter a career field immediately after high school. High paying jobs and chances for advancement are the incentives offered at the Center, and many Douglass students are taking advantage of these opportunities.

Vocational Department Offers Careers

TOP: James Lovett works hard at reupholstering this chair. After he finishes the sides, maybe it will be so pretty, somebody will buy it.
RIGHT: Hudell Gabriel works hard in tailoring, because he knows that completion of the course will insure him a good job.

The Douglass Vocational Department is one of the best equipped in the City. With its spacious accommodations and qualified instructors, the "VOC" is popular for the many practical courses offered there. Some of these vocational subjects include: Cosmetology, Tailoring, Body and Fender, Brick Masonry, Upholstry, and many others.

Many students excel in these areas, because they realize that many job opportunities are available upon completion of the course.

"I just washed my hair and can't do a thing with it," says Janice Byrd, as she sits patiently under the hair dryer in Cosmetology.

Student Council Backs Unity

The Student Council is the organization that governs the student body. This year, Douglass ran and was elected as one of the delegates to the National Student Council Convention. This means that the student body president for the 1972-73 school term will attend the national convention in Illinois this summer.

Presently, the schools in District IX are initiating a program called visitation. This gives students who are in an all white or all black situation a chance to visit into a different environment. The program has so far been said to be very effective.

Other projects by the Student Council are, a Trojan cup sale, a T-shirt sale, and a button sale. The Student Council is sponsored by Mrs. A.P. Morgan and Mme. K.L. James. Officers are: Ronald Johnson, president; Connie Nubine and Phillip Pitre, vice-presidents; Tonya Reese, secretary; and Linda Davis, treasurer.

NHS Holds Full Induction

The induction of the new members into the Douglass Chapter of the National Honor Society was held in November of 1971.

Fund raising projects to raise money for the annual N.H.S. scholarship was the main event of the year. Under the leadership of president Kenneth Barclay and sponsor Mrs. K.L. James, the National Honor Society is the branch of a national organization, dedicated to the ideals of leadership, scholarship, character, and service.

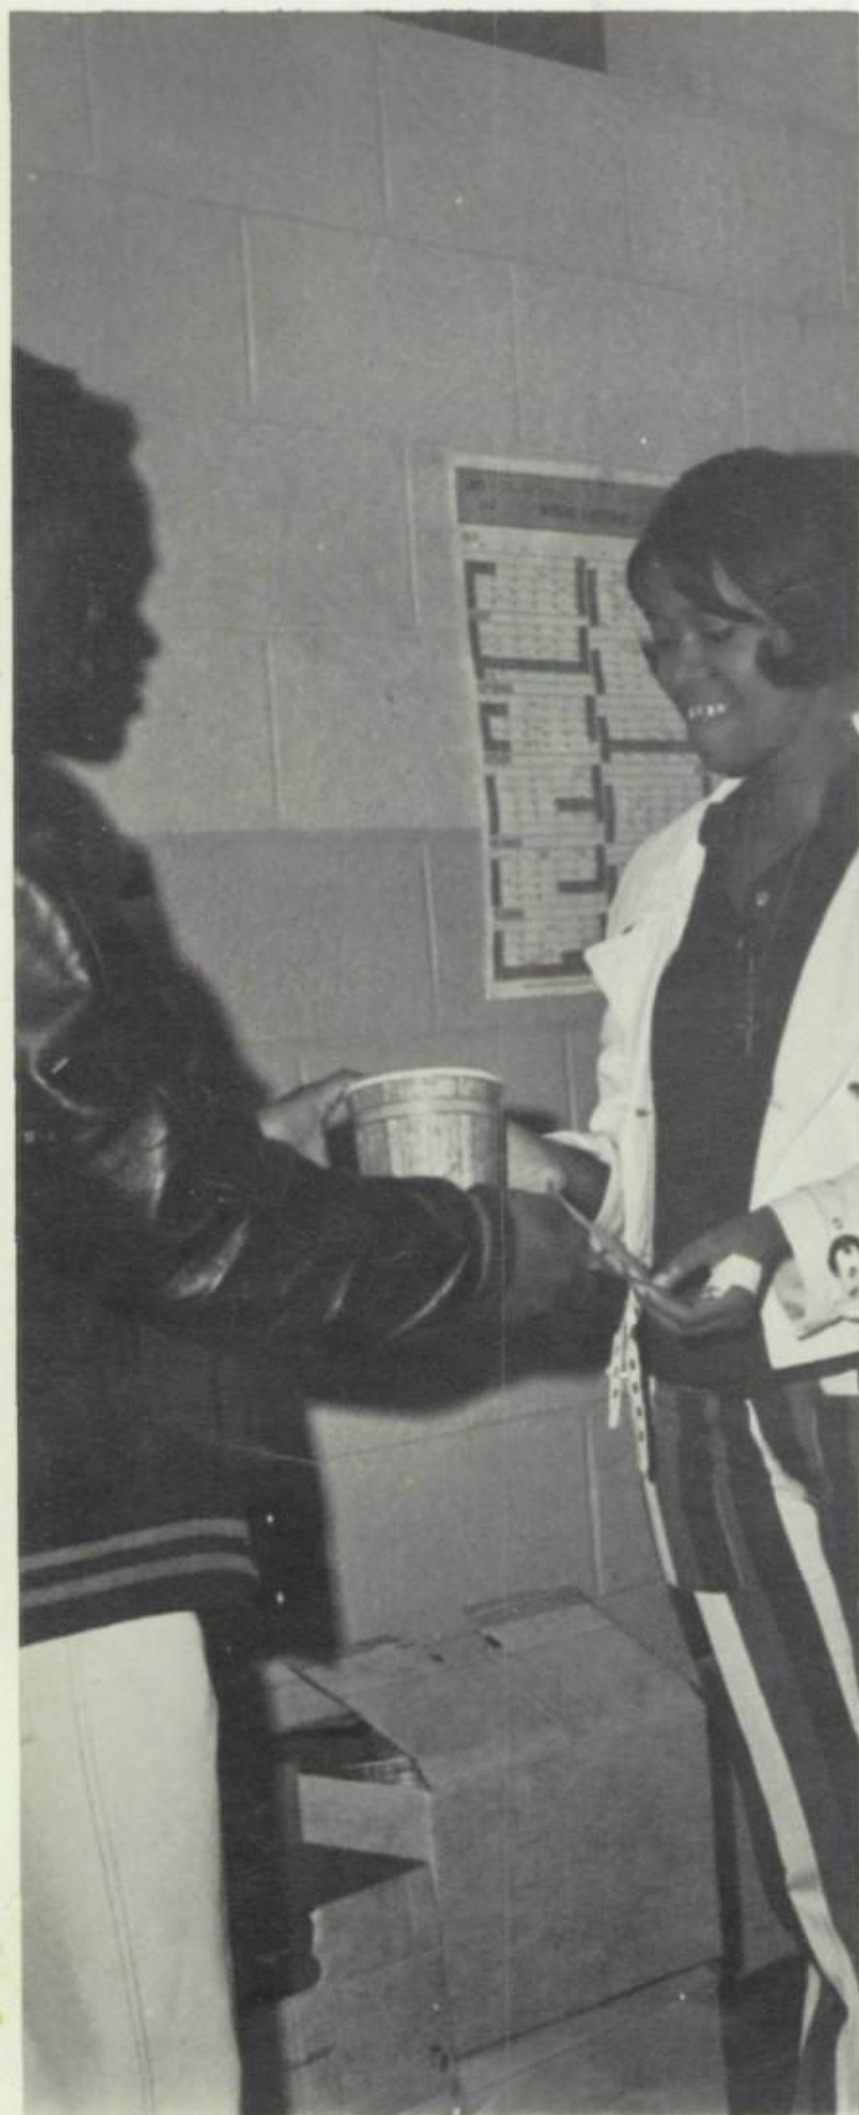

The goals of the National Honor Society are leadership, honor and scholarship. Here two members of the NHS attempt to achieve scholarship, but one of them seems to be distracted.

Junior Classical League Eyes Convention

The Junior Classical League is a state and national organization. The Junior Classical League members study aspects of Romans and Greeks. They also try to design projects that will get other people interested in classical studies. The Junior Classical League here at Douglass is beginning its third year, so it is a comparatively young club. Members who are not Latin students meet on the second Monday in each month. Sponsor is Miss Carpenter.

A little charm now and then goes a long way when making a candy sale for the Junior Classical League, as Ben Hall discovers when putting his sales pitch on Sharon Littlejohn.

Art Club Stirs Students' Interest

Artistic displays during 1971-72 Club Fair were exhibited by the Art Club, sponsored by Mrs. M. Pyle and Mr. R. Epperson. The Art Club participated in many activities, such as art sales and other social functions this year. They toured an art museum and an art gallery. They also had some guest speakers this year.

The purpose of the Art Club is to further interest in the arts and to develop skills in artistic techniques.

Art Club officers are George Garret, president; S. L. Wilson, vice president; James Mucker, secretary; Niagell Carrington, treasurer.

Senior, Roy Steele puts the finishing touches on his art project. Now he's ready to hang it up for display with the projects of many other students.

Red Cross Club Sponsors Community Activities

As a service organization the Douglass High Red Cross Club engages in many activities. Some of these are volunteers in Veterans' and Children's Memorial Hospitals each week, purchasing transistor radios and material to make gowns for Crippled Children's Hospital.

Some of their money raising funds were selling candy to help send two delegates to a state wide Leadership Conference. They also attended regularly a 10 week Leadership training workshop on communications, learning how best the Red Cross story may be told.

Officers are: Anna Johnson, president; Deborah Neal, vice-president; Marquinez Hughes secretary; Brenda Burton, assistant secretary; Linda West, treasurer; Deborah Frazier, reporter Denise Jackson, chaplin; and Mrs. J.J. Moore, sponsor.

Doris Rusher and Dorothy Ford are amused at Mrs. J.J. Moore's suggestion that the Red Cross Club go sing Christmas Carols at a local orphanage. They would rather give a party for the orphans and leave the singing out of it.

Trips Planned by Foreign Language Club

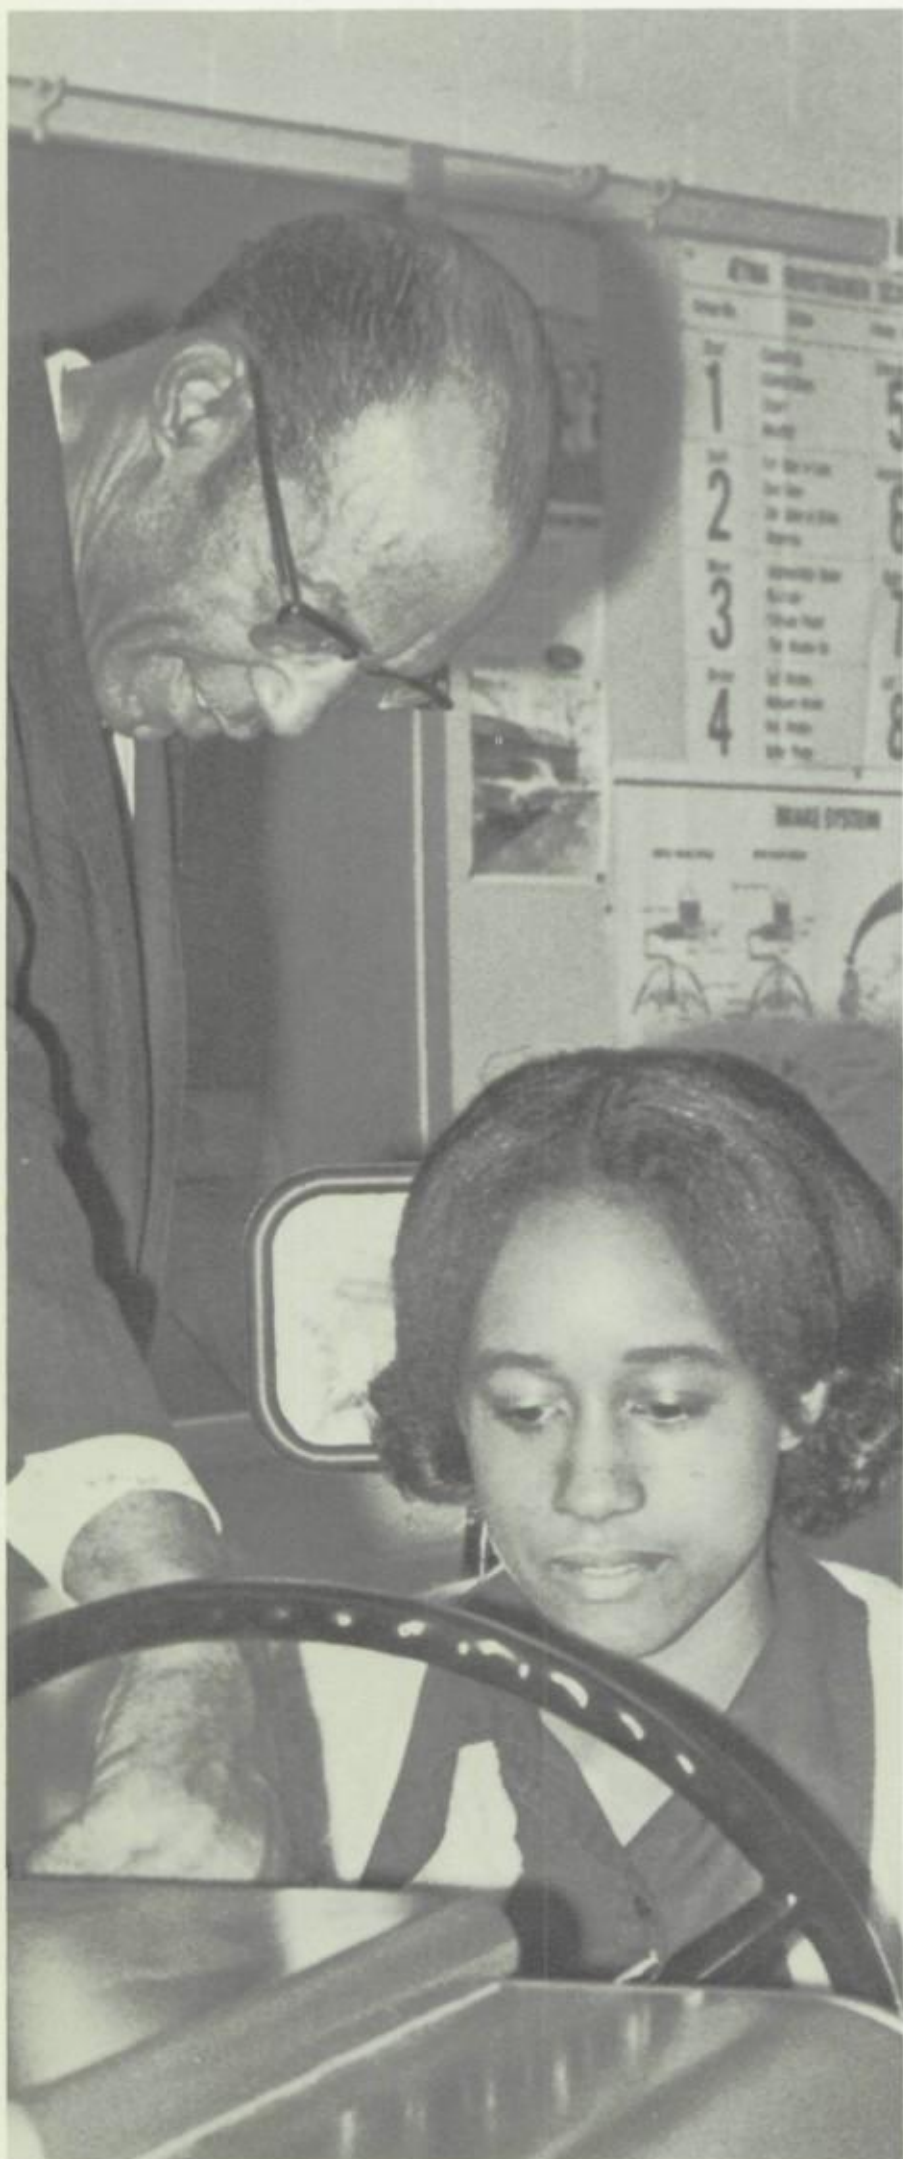

Each year the Foreign Language Club has two projects. This year the projects were having dinner at Adair's in Midwest City, and going on an excursion to a park of their choice. To be in the Foreign Language Club a student must be enrolled in a foreign language class or have completed a course.

There are 25 members in the club this year. Officers are: Linda Bell, president; Ronald C. Johnson, vice-president; Wendell Authur, secretary; Florene Douglass, assistant secretary; Brenda Franklin, Nannette Sanders, treasurers; Rose Carter, chaplin; and Ernest King, program committee chairman. The sponsor is Mme. K.L. James, who is also chairman of the Foreign Language department at Douglass High.

Safety Club Keeps School Clean

Fire drills, orderly disaster drills, and a safety poster contest are schedule for the 1971-72 Safety Club of Douglass Senior High. Campaigns on keeping the school orderly clean and safe is schedule for this year also. Duties of the Safety Club are to try and make the students of Douglass safety conscious. The Club is organized locally and city wide. Their sponsor is Mr. Sharp, members include Alice Persely, Joellan Black, Barbara Moore, Sarita Stephney and Eustacia Dawson.

The students were given honorable mention for their participation against Venereal Disease. The club members donated food and money for Thanksgiving basket for needy families. The donation drive went so well they decided to do the same for more families at Christmas. Also at Christmas the club members bought toys to give to orphans at a Christmas party they sponsored for them.

In the spring, the club started their money raising drive. They participated in candy sales, key ring sales and car washes. The sponsor is Mrs. E.K. Powell.

VICA Launches Money-Raising Campaign

The VICA Club has made this year one of their best years. The club launched their year with the VICA contest. The contestants were required to raise money for the title of Mr. & Miss VICA, unlike previous years. The club also participated in various field trips to help them be aware of the constant change in vocations. The club's most important trip was to the Capitol, when the members were greeted by Governor Hall and other speakers.

The club topped the year off with the annual VICA Ball, which the whole school agreed was a gala affair.

DHS Stage Band, Orchestra Scores High

Douglass's assemblies are highlighted by many pop tunes played by the stage band. The music varies from folk song's to today's popular soul. The stage band plays with all coronation exercises, and goes to contest every spring. They also open the talent show every year.

The orchestra plays many modern and classical tunes. They play the "Messiah" each year during Christmas. The orchestra also goes to contest each spring and usually brings back a superior rating.

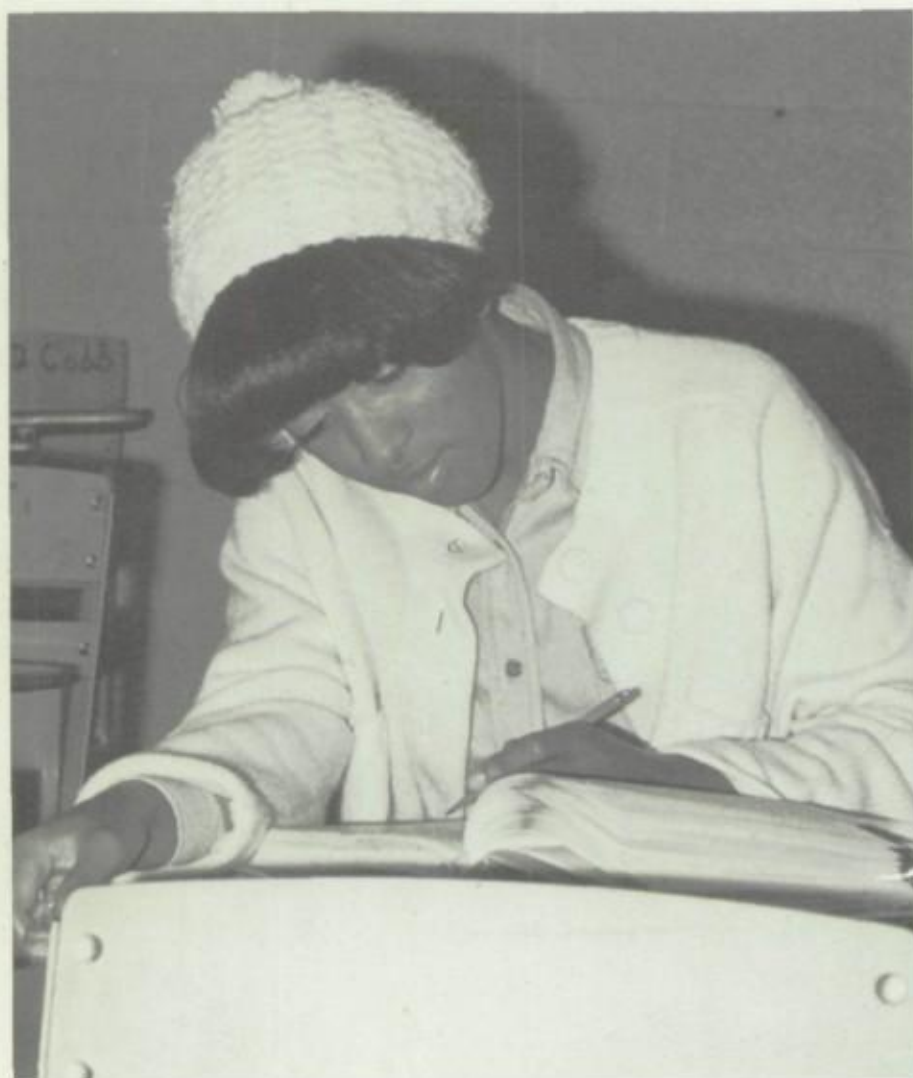

The stage band engaged in many practices for the Messiah presented each Christmas.

The Upward Bound Club helps college bound students prepare for the academic year. Upward Bound meets every summer at Langston University where students stay for seven weeks. This summer Upward Bound students engaged in many activities.

Trips to Texas, Southwestern College, George Washington Carver Monument in Missouri, and Indian City in Anadarko were included in the summer's activities. Skating, swimming, and bowling were also enjoyed by the students participating.

A follow-up program in the fall provides students with academic classes during the school year until the upcoming summer.

The 1972 Trojan band, attired in their new uniforms, made a pretty picture at Douglass' games. With all new steps and rhythm, the band entertained the many fans with popular songs at the basketball games.

In state activity the band participated in the Shriners parade, the Christmas parade, Band Day of Oklahoma University and took first place when they played for Central State's Homecoming.

The band went to contest at the first of March. The band, as they do each year, received excellent and superior ratings.

Patricia Hamlin and Teresa Cooper hold their own during half-time of the Trojan Homecoming Game.

Donna Bess Selected As First Young Lady President of Choir

The Douglass High School Concert Choir was very active this school year, beginning with the production of three 40 minutes shows at FAA. The choir performed for a crowd that was well over a thousand. Also, entertaining students from various schools, the choir executed an appropriate display of talent for the Culbertson Elementary School style show. Many shows are put on during a year, including the annual Christmas Program when the Messiah is performed to attempt to enlighten and entertain the students on music during the age of the Savior.

The Editors of the Trojan are; Viretha Cobb and Tonya Reese; Peter Miller, sports editor; Sarita Stephney, copy editor; Rhonda Henry, lay-out editor; Janett Jackson and Latretta Wilson, public relation editors.

S P O R T S

TROJANS VS SPARTANS

The Douglass Trojans opened their 1971 season with a disappointing 14-0 loss to the Southeast Spartans. Fumbles at two key situations in the game gave both teams excellent scoring opportunities.

Southeast coughed the ball up after the kickoff at their own forty yard line, but Douglass failed to capitalize on it. A few minutes later Mike Wells juggled a Spartan punt on their own 36 yard line.

The Spartans took advantage of the situation, scoring six plays later taking a 7-0 lead. The Trojans eliminated the second quarter but failed to score and the Spartans lead 14-0 at the half. The defense played beautifully, with Dale Alexander, Raymond Hayes, and Rodney Howard leading the charge.

Lewis Rockmoore breaks up a pass intended for a Southeast Spartan. The Trojans, however, were not able to break the Spartans defense.

Quarterback Peter Miller's eyes are wide open as Midwest City defenders grab him, only after a 20 yard gain.

Halfback Irving Baccus, number 18, glides around the end as Reggie Tarver and Garland Hall lead the way against U.S. Grant. The Trojans were victorious, 27-14.

TROJANS VS BOMBERS

A muddy 34-6 battle was lost to Midwest City as the Douglass Trojans failed at the hands of their foes for the second week in a row. The Trojans got off to a nice start with a 15 yard pass from quarterback Peter Miller to Temple McKinney, but mistakes, penalties, and bad weather seemed to hamper the Trojans most of the night. The Bombers capitalized on Trojan mistakes and went on long drives to tally their 34 points.

But things started to look up for Douglass in the fourth quarter, when flashy William Baggett snagged a 40 yard ariel from quarterback Paul Dillard and dashed the remaining 40 yards for the Trojan's only touchdown.

Trojans Vs. Bears

The Douglass Trojans extended their losing streak to three games as they took a 19-0 defeat from the John Marshall Bears in their own stadium.

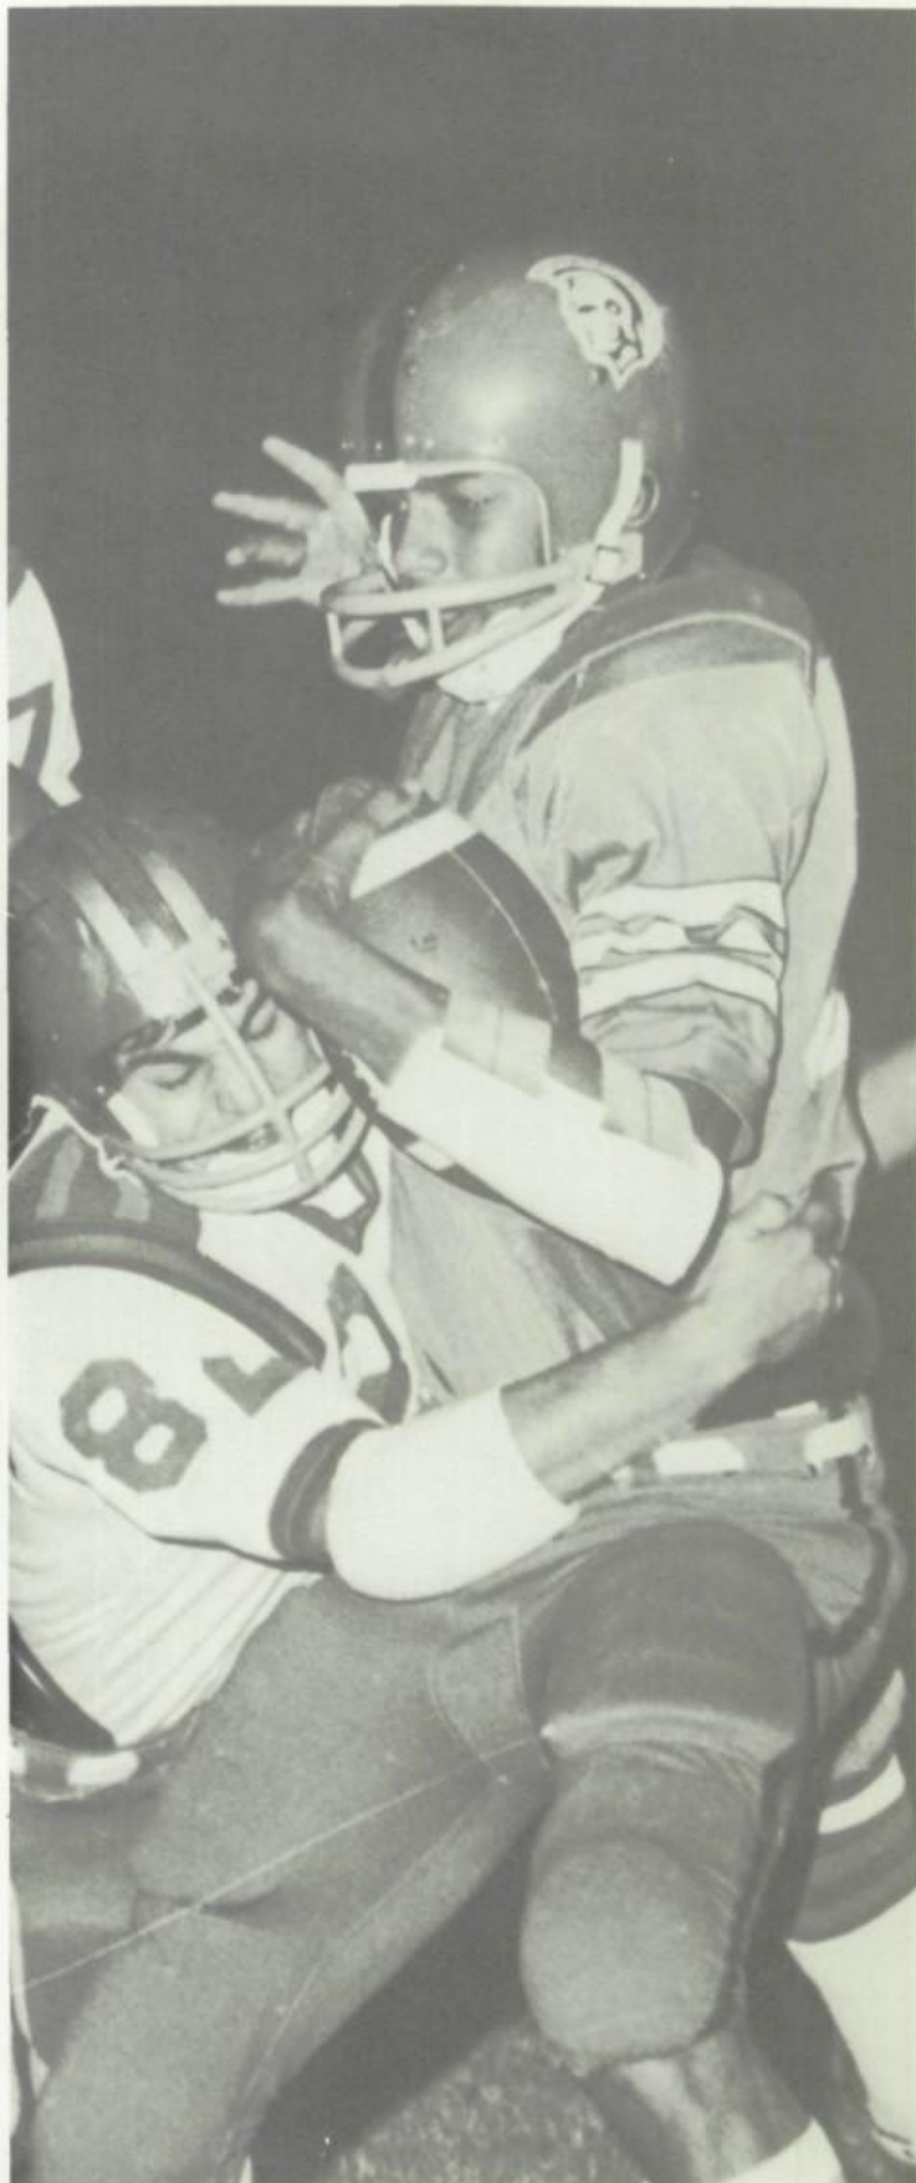

The Trojans got off to a bad start on the first play, as a pass from scrimmage was intercepted by Phil Crook at the Douglass 37 yard line.

Although John Marshall started off a bit slow also, their pace picked up as they capitalized on costly mistakes by the Trojans deep in their own territory. The Bears touchdown came on a 4-yard run by Monty Priest, a 15 yarder by Rod McDaniel, and a 3 yarder by Gary Johnston.

The Trojan sparks were extinguished by penalties and mishaps as Irving Baccus took a 12 yarder in, but a Trojan without a mouth piece spoiled it. A 29 yard toss to Temple McKinney from Peter Miller was dropped in the end zone to end the Trojans scoring threats.

Coach Pen and Johnson bring Kenneth Jones to the sidelines after being injured. Brian Nichols and coach Higgins came along for the walk.

Fullback Mike Wells is finally caught after he picked up the first down.

Trojans Vs. Generals

The Trojan defensive unit saw the light and took the road to glory as Douglass downed the U.S. Grant Generals 28-17 for the Trojans first win of the season.

Down 7-0 after a nine yard pass completion from Grant quarterback Gregg Rolland to Steve Reid. Then with three seconds left in the first quarter Temple McKinney darted his way to a 45 yard touchdown kick-off return.

Defensively Douglass had its best game of the season. First the Black and Orange unit recovered a fumble on the Grant one yard line after a bad snap from the center on a punting situation and the Trojan offense took it in for the score. Highlighting the night's activities Kenneth Jones intercepted a General pass and galloped 82 yards for the touchdown.

The final score of the game came after a bad punt giving the Trojan offense the of the Grant fourteen yard line, five plays later quarterback Peter Miller dove into the end zone finalizing the score.

Trojans Vs. Pirates

Things seemed to go wrong on this particular night for the Trojans, but things worked out differently for the Pirates as they defeated Douglass 34-0. The closest Douglass had ever gotten to scoring was a drive to the Pirate 22-yard line, which came on a fumble recovery by Captain Ronnie Higgins at the Pirate 37. Putman City scored on short running plays that resulted from long drives down field. Quarterback Peter Miller casted rays of hope for the Trojan as he threw screen passes to sophomore Tightend Reggie Deloney.

The Trojan Seniors leads the way for the last time.

Trojans Vs. Hornets

The Trojan were humiliated by the Black Hornets from "T" town.

Tulsa Washington drubed Douglass before a crowd of pleased Hornet fans. The archrival teams were constantly trying to stop the speed coming from each Backfield.

The Hornets got on the score board when Willis Crenshaw dashed away from Trojan Defenders. At intermission the score was 7-0 in favor of the Hornets.

The 3rd quarter was more exciting as the Trojans couldn't stop the big fullback from Tulsa. Sylvester Berry passed and the Trojans couldn't penetrate the Hornet Defense. The Trojans fought hard but lost the game 27-0.

As a Southeast wide receivers halls in a pass, Brian Nichols begins the futile attempt to catch him.

Douglass Vs. Knights

After winning only 2 of 7 games the Trojans went into the final game of the gridiron season against the Northwest Classen Knights.

After a brisk 47 yard dash, by David Warren of the Knights, the game seemed as if it was going to have only one score. After 3 quarters it was 7-0. Then the Knights began to fear the running of Baccus, Higgins and the arm of Miller and almost pulled it to a succession. Miller hit Deloney with a pass and the sophomore danced and wiggled in for the score.

The Knights began another drive and Raymond Hayes changed their plans with a 90 yard interception and a touchdown. Time ran out before the Trojans could get their hands back on the ball. They ended the season with a defeat and a 2-6-0 record.

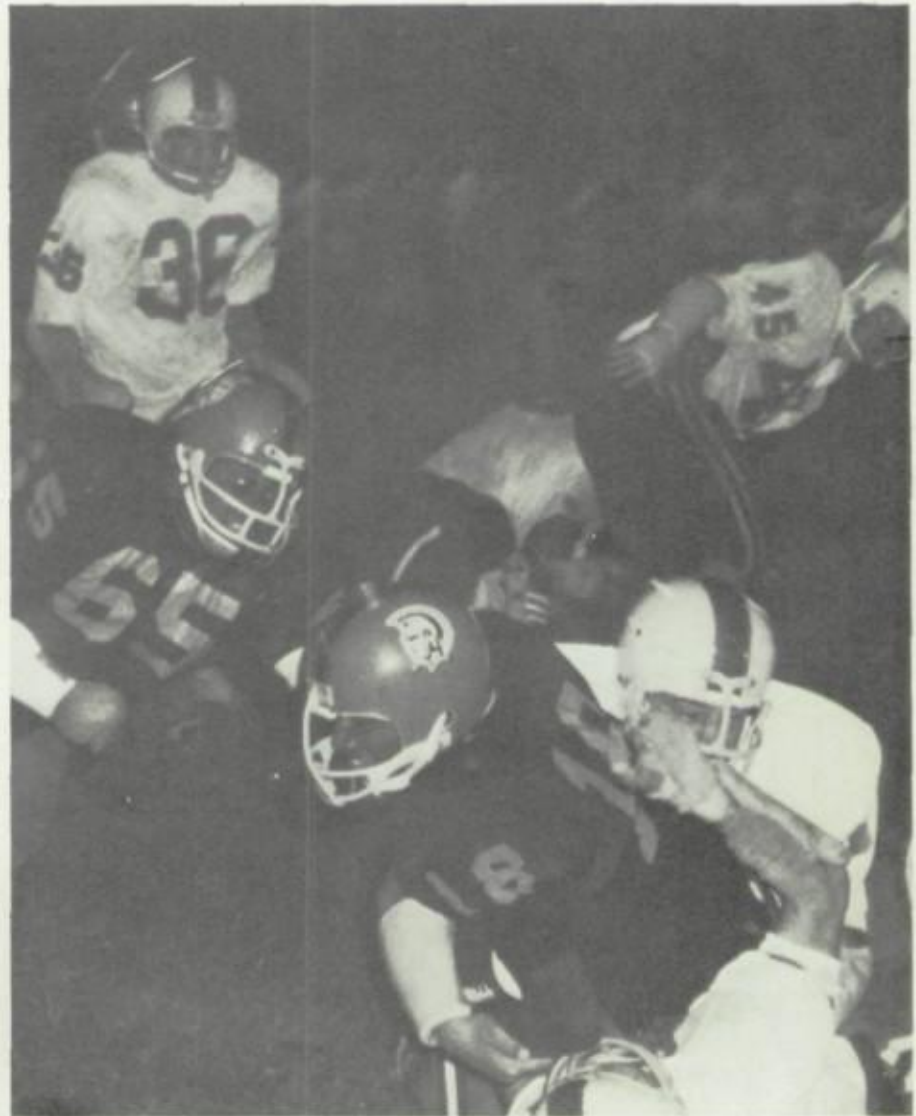

pass to tight end Reggie Deloney.

Trojans Vs. Redskins

Orange and Black students flashed around over and through bewildered Redskin defenders as the Douglass Trojans bombarded Capital Hill 50-0 for the Trojan's second win of the season and their greatest scoring running and passing finale of the season.

It seemed as if the Trojans could do no wrong as the orange and black gridsters scored on their first possession with driving Baccus scoring from five guards out. At half-time Douglass was ahead by a defeat of 28-0.

For the first time this season the Trojans defense shutout its opponent and even got into the scoring picture when Garland Hall blocked a Redskin punt and John Wise recovered the ball in the end zone.

Garland Hall is a little late with his block as John Marshall defenders bring down All-Mid State halfback Irving Baccus.

Basketball Spectators Attracted by New Team

The Douglass Trojans kicked off their 1971-72 Basketball season with the Booker T. Washington Hornets stomping an 85-76 victory over them. The soft-pawed Richard Mumford was the high point man for the Trojans hitting 20 points, but Charles Sims of the Hornets was the high point man of the game with 28 points.

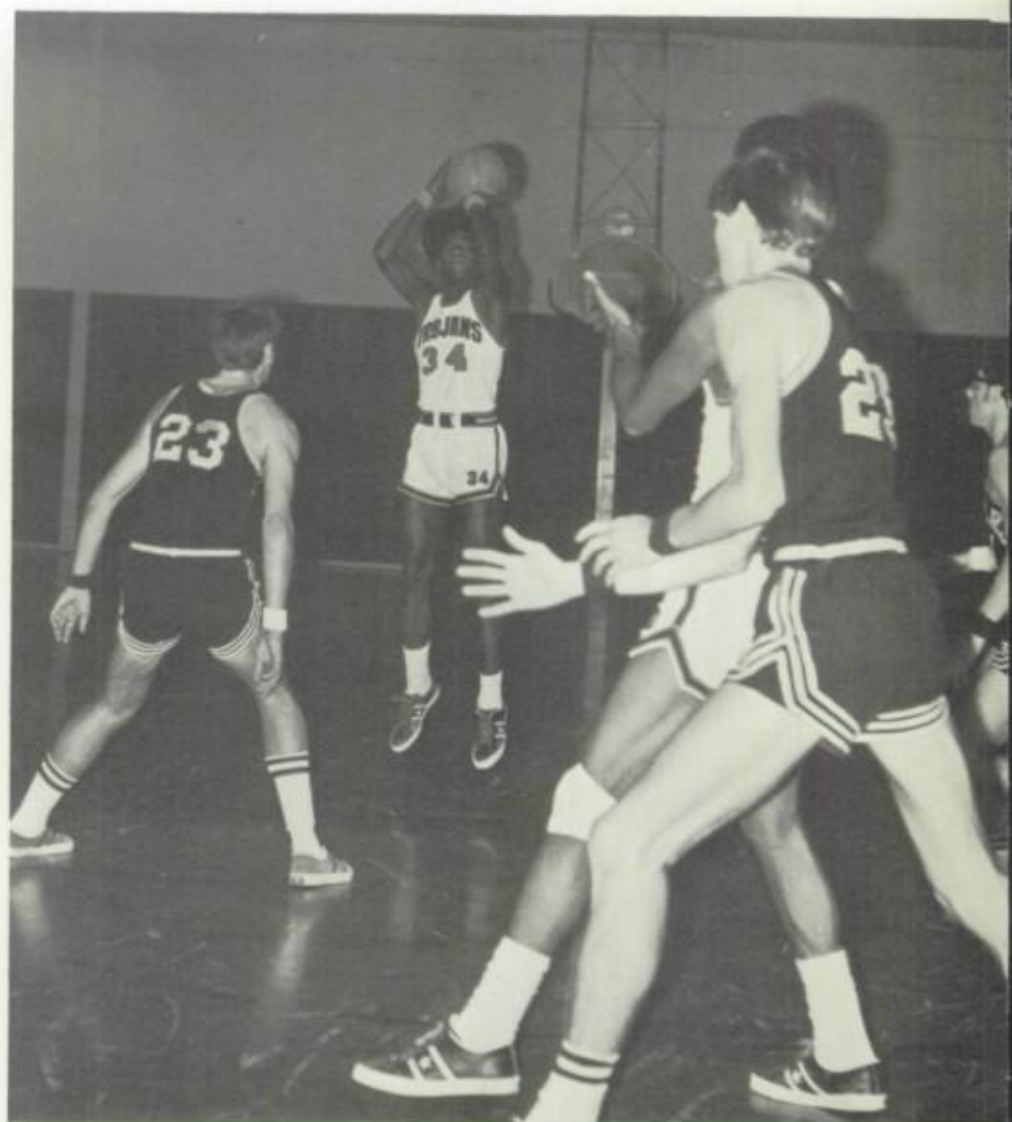

With 0 wins and 1 loss, the Trojans traveled cross town to Viking country, their longtime rival. Many had said that the strength of the Vikings came with their three giants; Stanley Lee, Albert Burris, and Lawrence Wilson. Whether this is true or not, the Trojans were smashed 63-45.

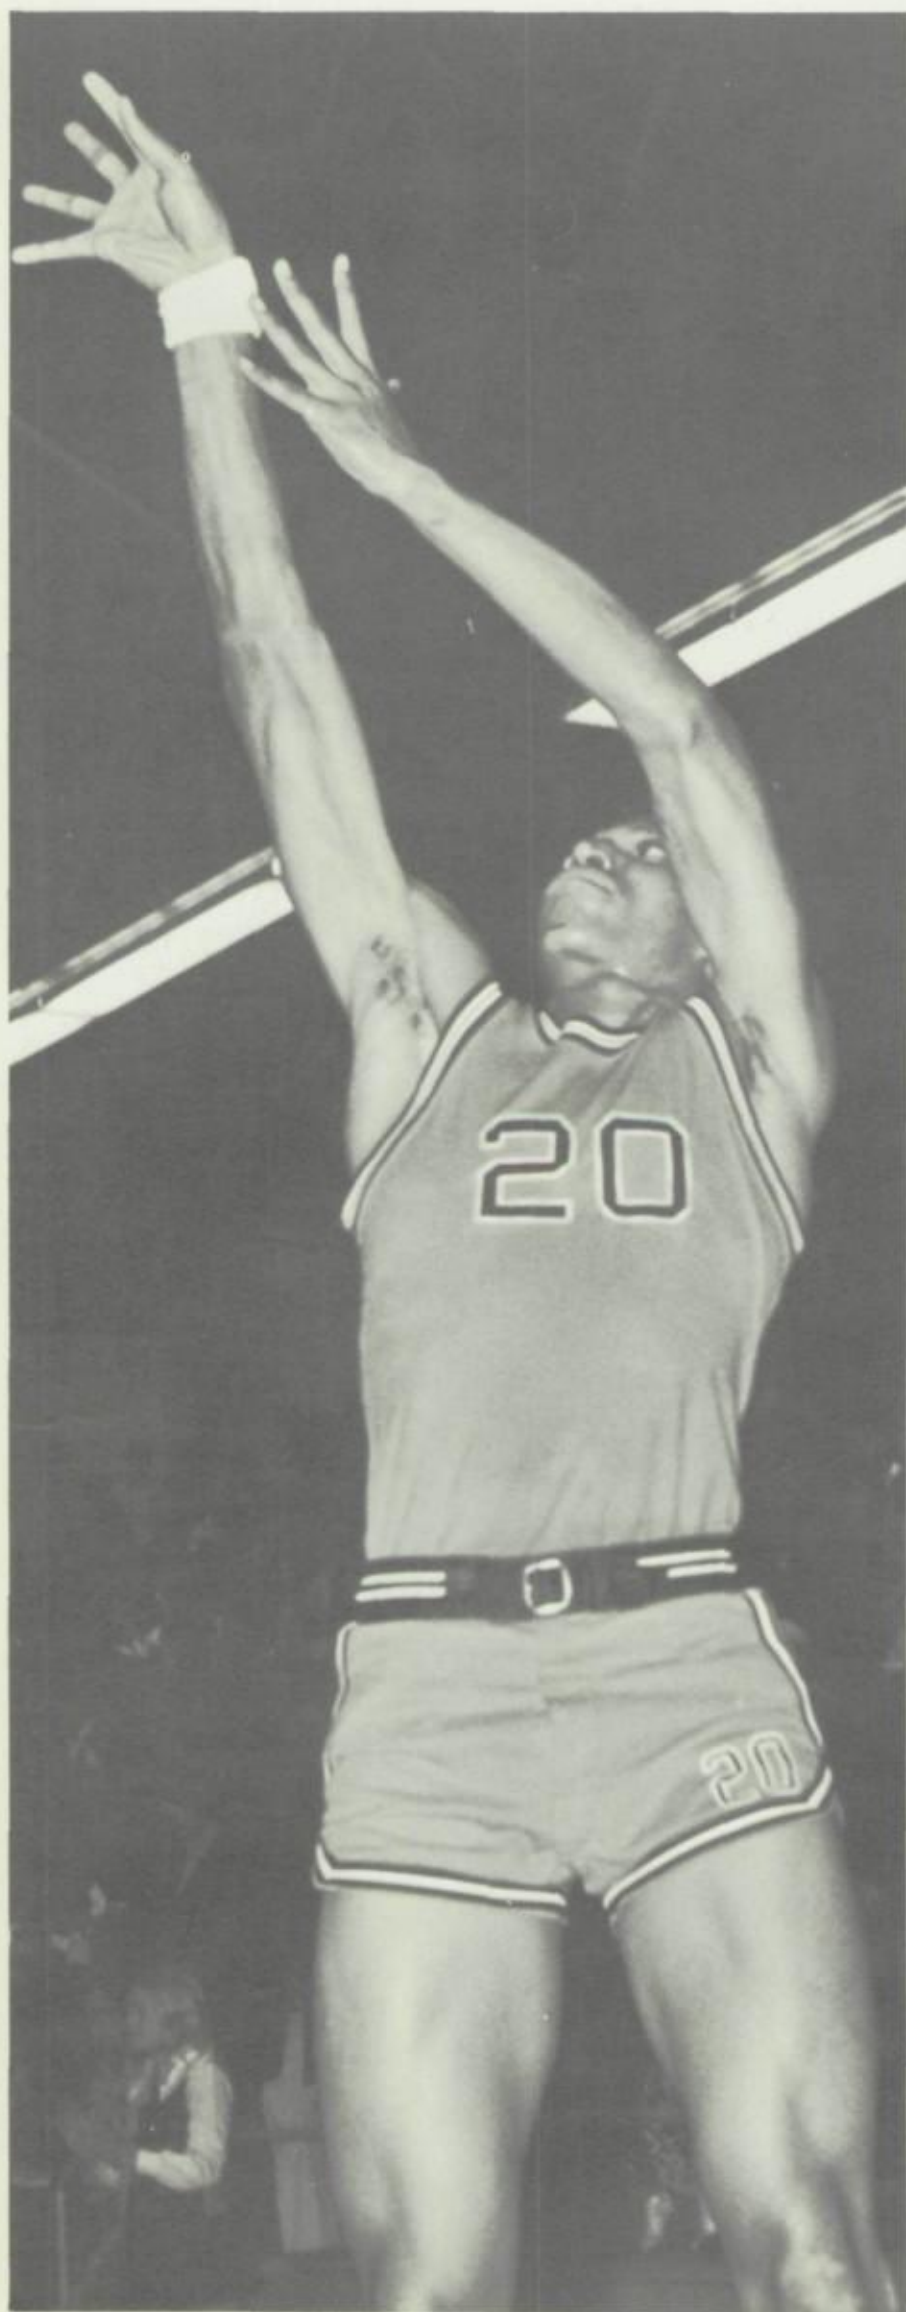

Opening league play with a 0-2 record, the Trojans court-martialed the U.S. Grant Generals 76-66. Mumford lead the scoring with 21, Muse 13, Cobb 8 and House 8.

John Marshall became a slaughter victim of the Trojans as they sustained a 71-62 loss. Mumford hit 18, Tucker 15, Cudjoe 13, and House 11, Tucker cleared the board with 11 rebounds.

Now standing 2-2 for the season, the Trojans were untracked when the Capitol Hill Redskins bumped the Trojans for a 81-74 defeat. Richard Mumford, who has led in scoring for the Trojans, tossed in 16 with Wallace Youngblood trailing with 14.

Senior 6'6 Brian Nichols showed up during the John Marshall game but did not see much action. Brian, just recovering from a shoulder injury, was predicted to stand out in many of the games in the future.

Trojans Jinx Season

The 1972 Trojan Basketballers wouldn't at all call this season a lucky one.

From the start the roundballers started the season with some devastating losses to Tulsa Washington and Northeast. And to make things worse they dropped a couple of key conference games, and were placed on probation because of an incident at Putnam City.

But after that things started to turn around during the end of the season and jell. The Trojans took what little pride they had left and started a winning streak, posting wins against John Marshall, U.S. Grant, Capitol Hill, Northwest Classen, and Southeast.

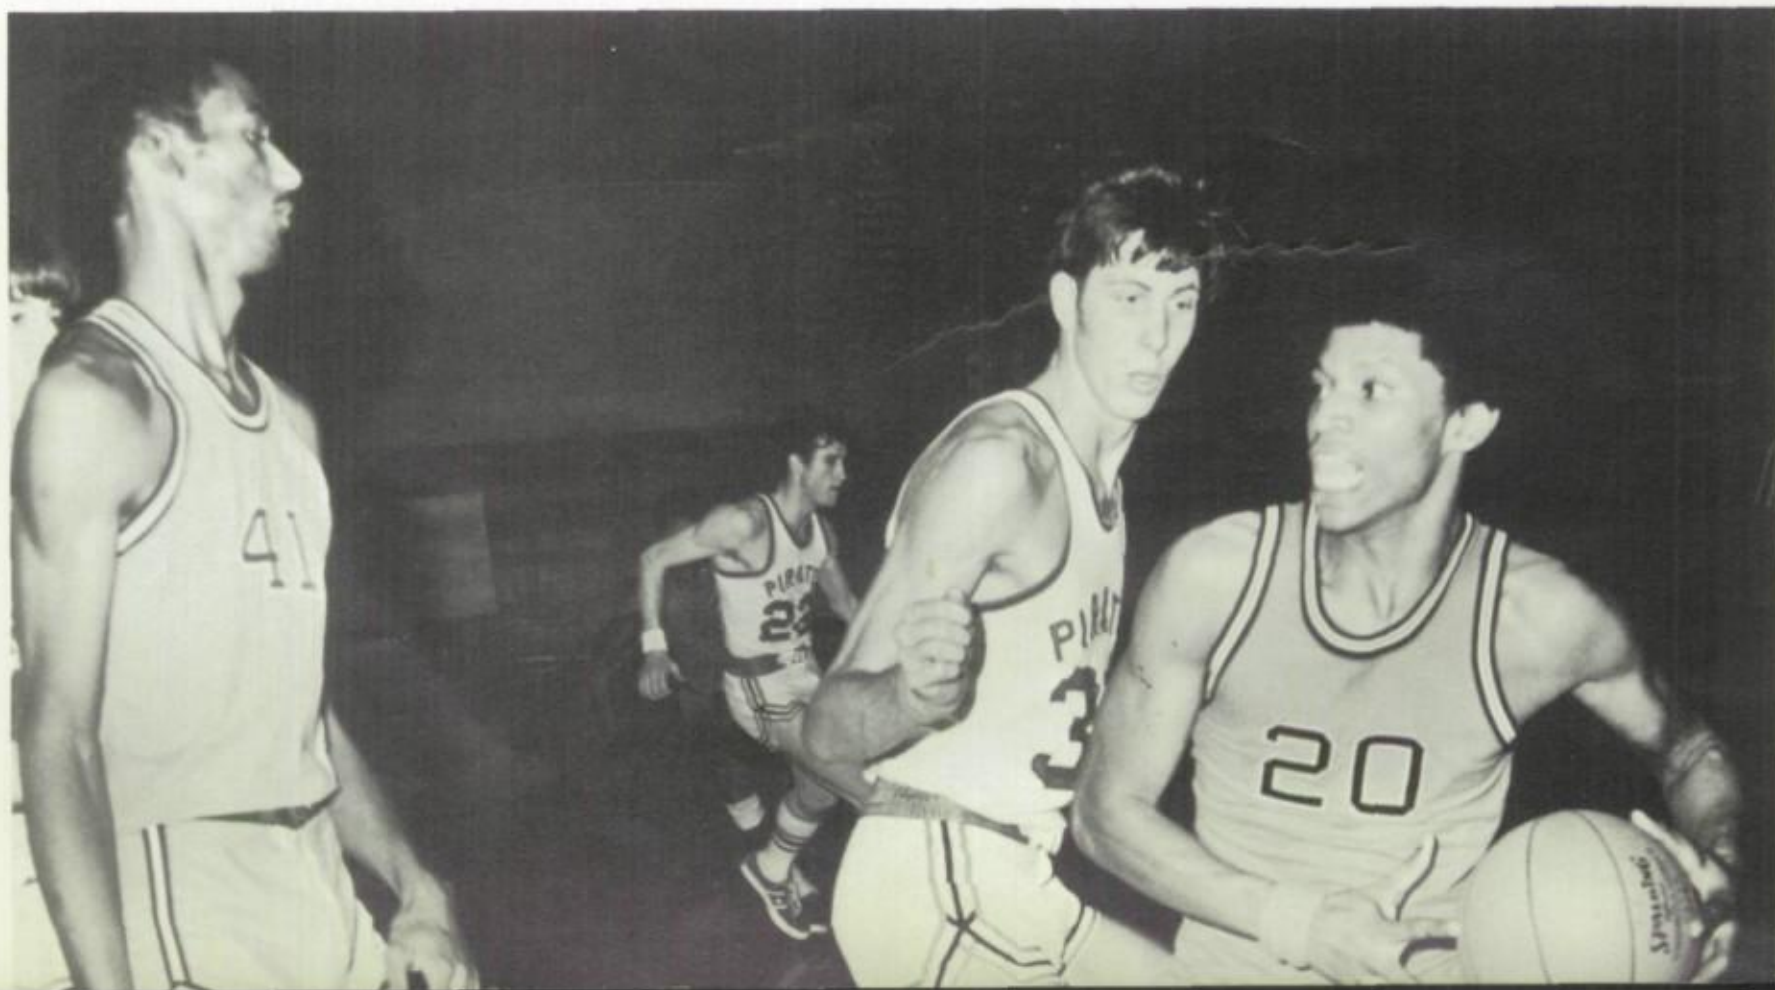

Melvin Tucker looks as though he's jumping to the ceiling when actually he's only jumping to the goal. Clyde is preparing to get it in case he misses.

Maurice House is being blocked out of the hole by Mike Thomas of Northwest Classen. The two point play was good.

'72' Varsity Basketball Team Still on Top

Wrestling Team Has Good Season

This year's Trojan wrestling team has vastly improved. They placed sixth in the All City Wrestling Tournament and have two all-city grapplers, Raymond Hayes and Vinson Simmons.

Although the Trojans will be losing three of their most experienced members — Ben Hall, Vinson Simmons and Raymond Hayes, they have nothing to fear because letterman Garland Hall, Bernard Lane, Emmitt Burge and Thomas Shaw will be returning.

All in all the Trojans should have another interesting year ahead of them.

Bernard Lane sets them off, as Joe Simmons shows Larry McGee his riding technique.

Raymond Hayes and Vinson Simmons demonstrate how to extricate oneself from a take down hold.

Baseball season began with the start of the new year. Practice began January 3. This year's team was led by Mr. Ronald Pendarvis, new this year, Coach Pendarvis is a former all stater from Douglass. The coach said that the Trojans would be "Number One" in the conference this year. At the time of yearbook publication baseball season had not offically opened, so time will show whether Coach Pen's prediction come true.

The team for the past 5 years has been the spoiler, beating teams at the end of the season.

The baseball program includes hard training and awareness of the game. The schedule this year is new. The team will play the same team three games in a row. Each team played 27 conference games, plus the other nonconference games to add to the 27.

Sprinters Dash Into Strong '72' Season

The 1972 edition of our Trojan Track Team will be marked by veterans and inexperienced trackmen.

Returning from last year's track team will be leading point producers on the 71 strong team. Michael Wells and Brian Nichols should again lead the track team in point production. Michael Wells, at the end of the 71' season had developed into one of the finest high hurdlers in our state. Brian Nichols has been a quality broad jumper in the state for the last two years. He won the Mid-State title both his Sophomore and Junior years. He had the best jump in the state of Oklahoma in 1971 with a jump of 23'5".

Third year coach Roscoe Cogburn stated that "Brian's and Michael's efforts should continue to improve and add a state title to either one of their accomplishments."

Cogburn also mentioned, "The rest of our track team is spiced with a few other veterans, most notably Ronnie Higgins, Percy Durham, Daniel Looney, and Raymond "Buzzard" Hayes, all of whom are 3 year lettermen. For our track team to be successful we must find individuals to give depth and also strengthen our relay teams which are the backbone of any track team."

4. Leading Mid-State hurdler Mike Wells strides at full speed over a hurdle at practice.

5. The Trojan photographer caught Richard Naff in the stride which he hopes will win him many events this year.

Highlighting the Minor Sports Are Golf and Swimming

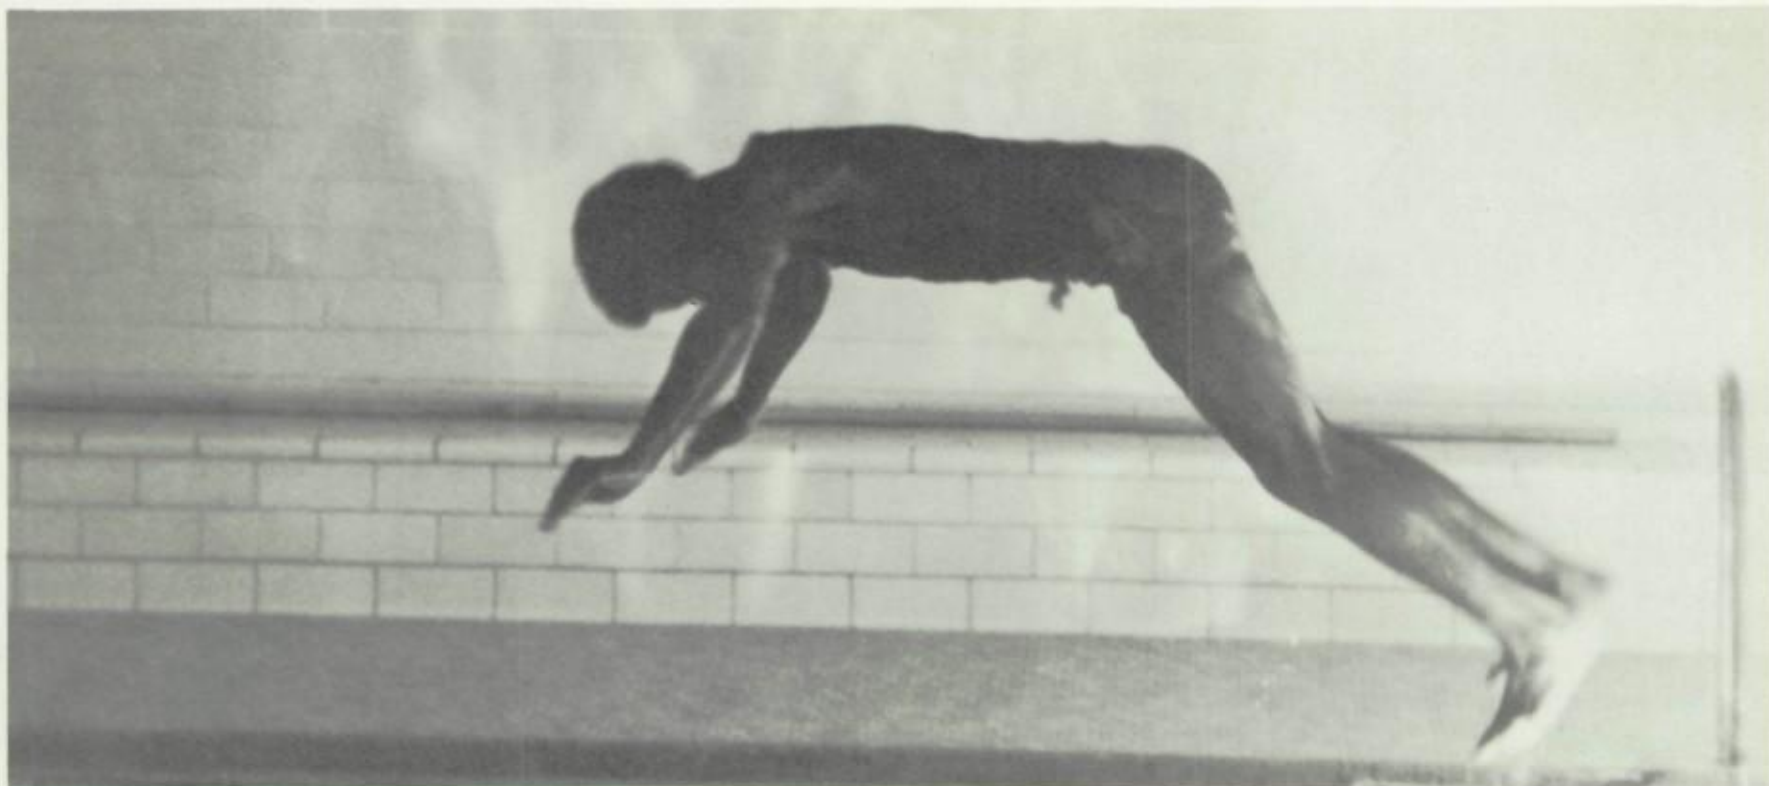

Golf has become one of the faster growing sports at Douglass High. The team is headed by Mr. Hilliard H. Sharp, who is one of the finer golfers in the city.

Swimming is a new sport for this school year and it is headed by Mr. Steve Reudy. They will be recruiting all year.

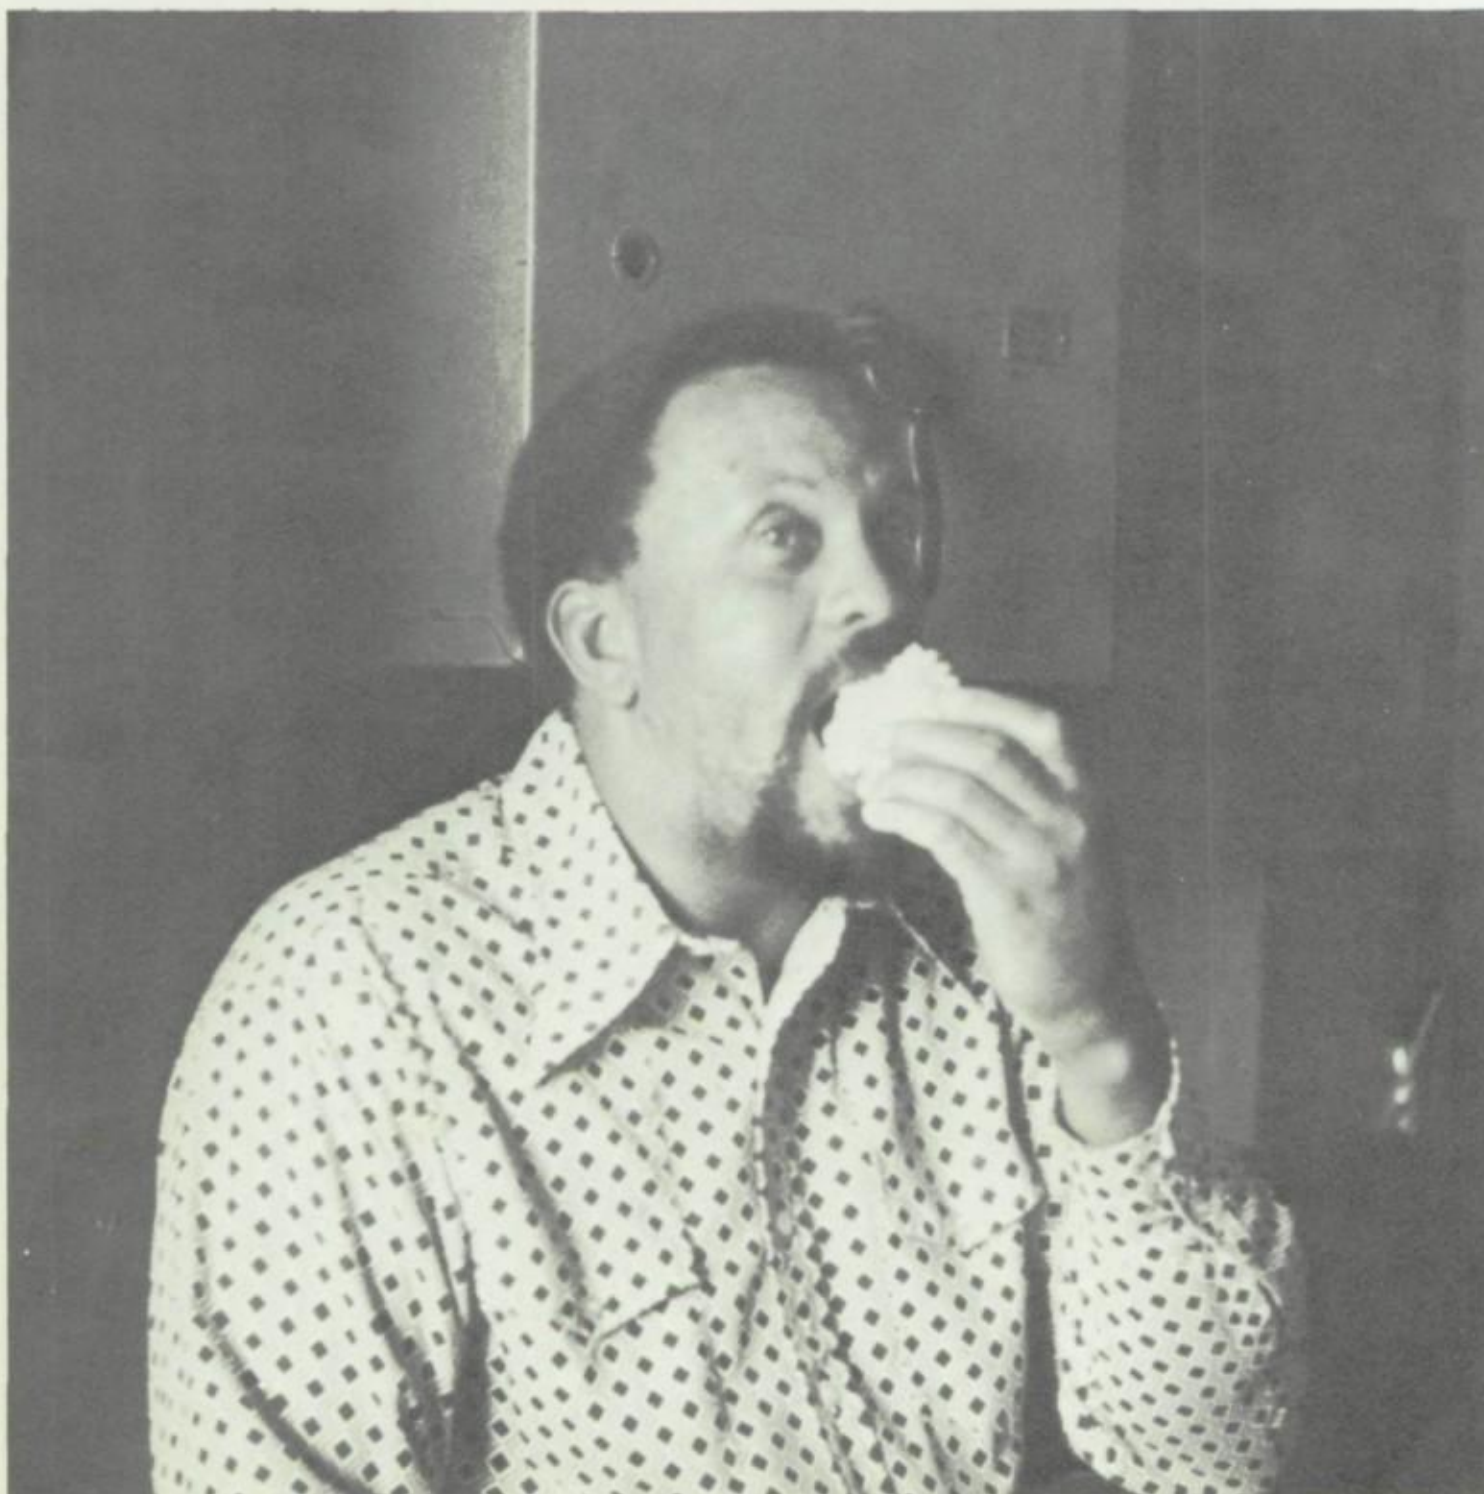

Captain Amiel Beatty gets in the swing of things as he prepare for a before season scrimmage.

The first student to go out for swimming was Stanley Williams. He is going through all of the fundamentals of swimming that he is familiar with. Mr. Reudy is said to have high hopes for the 1971-72 Trojan Swim Team.

The man that students refer to as the fish of D. H.S. is Mr. Alfa Mouton. He is always around to give the young men individual assistance when ever it is necessary. His motto is never eat before entering the pool.

Trojan girls compete in several different sports such as softball, volleyball and basketball. In softball the girls ended the season with a record of five wins and two losses. Many girls are expected to letter for their outstanding performances this year.

"I think the girls will do very well in all three sports this year", said Mrs. L. T. Alexander, sponsor of the teams.

Tennis Proves Best in Out Door Activities

Tennis has grown faster than any other sport at D.H.S. Young men and women are beginning to give up some of their other after school activities to come out and play tennis for social and competitive reasons.

The team consist of mainly juniors and sophomores. With this number of underclassmen, the team is in a very good position to grow because you can really say that the entire team will return the next coming fall.

The team had three scrimmage matches in September and October of 1971. From the results of these scrimmages the team has great promise for Spring 1972.

The leadership of this great team can be handed over to the three captains; Richard Williams, Harold Boyd, and Tonya Reese. Coach J. Macy.

Seniors Pose for Last I.D.

"I, Too, Sing America" is a fitting theme for the Seniors '72. They are about to become the adults of tomorrow, the future of America.

The seniors know they must go on to another step in life, even though it may be one of the most difficult to encounter.

Through hard work and sacrifice they have achieved much of the needed knowledge that must be obtained in life. They must continue to "eat and grow strong" at the table of knowledge, so they may bring pride to themselves and their former school.

Identification pictures were again taken at the beginning of the school term. Linda Bell is shown posing and radiant with a smile of happiness.

Juniors Promise Ideal "73" Class

Senior Niagel Carrington shows off his new "duds" to a crowd in the window. By the looks on their faces, they are enjoying it.

Jerome Brown looks content as he catches up on a little sleep he lost. Makes you wonder what class he's missing.

Ben Kendrick awaits anxiously his opponent's return of the tennis ball in a conference match. He knows he'll win this one, with the help of his partner John Edwards.

Sophomores Add Zest to Douglass Life

BELOW: This art student starts another addition to the fascinating wall of artwork. He's sure this will be his best for the year.

This sophomore class is hard at work studying for their U.S. History. They're working to be another of Douglass' ideal class.

Arnold Burleigh gives up his lunch period to practice his Bass lesson. Maybe he'll be another Count Basie.

RIGHT: Two sophomores think the library is the ideal place for them to do their Spanish homework. By doing it together, it doesn't seem as hard.
 RIGHT: Sophomore Wayne Richards makes sure the copies for the Trojan World are perfect, all the time his wishing someone else were helping him.

ENERGY is our business!

Born in the oil fields of Oklahoma, Kerr-McGee has grown steadily through the years and is now internationally recognized for its success in finding and producing natural resources, including the four basic sources of energy — oil, gas, uranium and coal.

Kerr-McGee's world-wide operations are directed from headquarters in Oklahoma City. Throughout the state, Kerr-McGee employs more than 1,900 Oklahomans. We are proud of our Oklahoma heritage.

Melvin Tucker, Pat Brown, and an unknown friend enjoy a good joke during lunch time. Maybe the joke was the food in the cafeteria.

Katrina Shaw seems to be working hard to finish a yearbook deadline while Gail Counts, in background, seems to be having a little fun.

I, Too, Sing America

The 1972 Trojan editors chose the theme "I, Too, Sing America" by Langston Hughes, with the hope that it would have a deeper affect upon the readers than themes of previous years.

One major change in this year's book was the striking orange cover, a variance from the traditional black. We have varied to other dark colors such as gray and green, but never such a vibrant color, such as orange. This rich color reflects the exuberance of this year's student body and the vitality of our yearbook theme.

To record for history the school year of 1971-72 is the aim of this year's staff. Many hours of hard work have gone into this edition.

As co-editors we hope this book will be read with interest and enjoyment for years to come.

Our staff is proud of its efforts this year and wish next year's staff great success.
